

Announcing Roseway Heights Planning Principal Len Reed

June 2016

Dear Roseway Heights Community,

Please join me in welcoming Len Reed as the planning principal for the proposed Roseway Heights Middle School. She is currently the principal of Jason Lee K-8 School.

Len will help shape the vision for the new middle school, scheduled to open in Fall 2017. Lee, Scott and Vestal and a new K-5 at Rose City Park are recommended to feed Roseway Heights.

Before joining PPS in July of 2014, she served as a middle school educator for 14 years in California. Len worked as an assistant principal and taught language arts, social studies, reading, leadership and AVID.

Accomplishments while at Lee School include an improved school climate and AVID certification – bringing AVID programming to 4th-8th graders. Len also helped reduce the rate of exclusionary discipline by more than 80 percent through the implementation of restorative practices and circles.

Her vision for the proposed Roseway Heights Middle School is to provide an academic program that is both rigorous and supportive, with extra/co-curricular activities that offer opportunities for leadership and character building, and a place where students feel they belong because of caring adults.

Len was born in Panama, speaks Spanish and grew up in California. She and her husband have a high school senior and a 4th grader. Her family raises chickens and they have a dog. When time allows, Len loves to crochet, watch basketball and geek out on science fiction.

Please join me in congratulating Roseway Heights Middle School Planning Principal Len Reed.

Carole Smith
Superintendent
