

Announcing Beaumont's New Principal Hariette Vimignon

March 2016

Dear Beaumont Community:

I am pleased to announce Mrs. Hariette Vimignon as principal at Beaumont Middle School, after serving as interim principal since Mrs. Macarre Traynham left the district in the fall.

Mrs. Vimignon is a product of PPS, graduating from Grant High School. She earned bachelor's degrees in French and International Studies and a master's degree in Educational Leadership from Portland State University. She completed her coursework in the Lewis and Clark Educational Leadership Program and is working on her doctoral dissertation.

Mrs. Vimignon taught for 12 years at Woodlawn and then Ainsworth Elementary as well as at James John Elementary and Harriet Tubman Middle School. She became an administrator 11 1/2 years ago, starting in Human Resources where she interviewed and hired teachers, substitutes and support staff. She became Assistant Principal at King Elementary as it transformed to a K-8 and then served in the same capacity at Marysville K-8. She then served for four years as assistant principal at Beaumont before succeeding Principal Traynham.

Mrs. Vimignon is excited to continue her work at Beaumont together with the staff and the parent community.

Please join me in congratulating Principal Vimignon!

Carole Smith
Superintendent
