

Real Food with Local Flavors

Over 32% of our food purchases come from local farmers and producers. These “local flavors” bring the region’s great products to the students of Portland Public Schools. Some of our local partners include:

Northwest Farmers

Campoeg Farm, St. Paul | Hilltop Farm, Troutdale | Kiyokawa Family Orchards, Parkdale
Palmer Creek Fruit Company, Willamette Valley | Pollock and Sons, Hermiston | Siri & Son Farms, Organic Family Farming, Clackamas | Springbank Farm, Lebanon | Stahlbush Island Farms, Corvallis | Trapold Farms Sauvie Island
Vial Family Farms, Hillsboro | Washington Asparagus Farms, Eltopia, WA | Yamhill County Mushrooms, Yamhill

Northwest Companies

Alaskan Leader Seafoods, Seattle, WA | Alpenrose Dairy, Portland | American Soul Brothers, Vancouver, WA
Bakeworks, Vancouver, WA | Carman Ranch, Wallowa | Curtis Restaurant Equipment, Beaverton
Don Pancho, Salem | Eleni’s Kitchen, Portland | Goody Man Distributing, Tualatin | Heritage Specialty Foods, Portland
McDonald Wholesale Company, Eugene | Merchants Paper Company, Portland | Norpac Foods, Salem
Organically Grown Company, Portland | Oregon Spice Company, Portland | Pacific Coast Produce Company, Portland
Penny’s Salsa and Fresh Produce, Auburn, WA | Portlandia Foods, Portland | Ray’s Meat, Yakima, WA
Roadrunner Pizza, Gladstone | SA Piazza & Associates, LLC Clackamas | Salsas Locas, Portland
Shepherd’s Grain, Pacific Northwest | Teeny Foods, Portland | Tillamook, Tillamook | Truitt Bros, Salem
Umi Organic, Portland | Wilder Land & Sea, Portland | Willamette Valley Fruit Company, Salem | Yami Yogurt, Pacific NW

Community Partners and Initiatives Supporting Healthy School Environments

