A BIG DAY FOR WILSON CROSS COUNTRY!

“On Wednesday, October 27, the ‘Long Green Line’ showed up in force for the 2016 PIL District meet, with over 120 athletes competing in the toughest district race in the state.

The afternoon started off with the JV boys absolutely crushing the field and taking home 1st place! Sophomore Caden Samkutty led the entire way (start to finish) and brought home the individual championship as well. A strong pack of Trojans followed closely behind including; Torsten Huesby, Nathan Rutledge-Gorman, Jacob Makuch and Mason Lommen.

The JV girls finished a respectable 2nd place in a very competitive division. Wilson Freshmen Avery Paulson and Autumn Darrah both finished in the top ten of the division. Avery was fifth overall with a time of 21:02 and Autumn was seventh overall in a time of 21:19. The future is very bright for this group of young up and comers!

All seven of our Varsity boys (Alex Slenning, Caleb Seely, Elius Graff, Finn Tyvoll, Kian Mitchell, Jackson Curtin and Aiden Manley) all ran their hearts out and finished in a close second place to Lincoln and qualifying for a return trip to state. Junior Alex Slenning became a two-time district champion by pulling away from the field and finishing in an incredible time of 15:49. Caleb Seeley gave Alex a run for his money, closing in fast and finishing in second place with a time of 15:51.

To cap the day, our Varsity lady Trojans (Francesca Ierulli, Grace Heizer, Annika Sundstrom, Adahra Poasa, Elle Stein, Zoe Anderson and Elsa Douglas) finished second overall, qualifying for state! The girls team is not only an elite state-level team on the course, but they were awarded an OSAA Academic All-State Award as well, with a combined 3.88 GPA. Reading, Writing and Running!

We would like to invite everyone to join us and support both teams at the OSAA state meet on Saturday, November 4, at Lane Community College. It should be historic day!" —Aaron Olsen, Cross Country Assistant Coach

Produced in Association with Playwrights West

**Seating is Limited**

The latest in our groundbreaking collaboration with Playwrights West, Aleks Merilo's suspense thriller follows a group of high school students into the woods in pursuit of a break from the stress of school life, and to honor the rebellious exploits of one of their own. What they find there will ask deep questions about what we fear, and what lengths we'll go to in order to protect ourselves from it. A rich and challenging tale, Strings promises to uphold the highest standards of the TeenWest Project and to bring new work to our high school-aged performers.

This play is recommended for audiences 8th-grade and older for mature themes and disturbing moments
