YOU'RE INVITED: to a student-led forum on May 26 at Madison High School on sexual exploitation and sex trafficking from 6-8pm in the Madison High School Auditorium.

Students, policymakers and community members will have an opportunity to discuss solutions to rising trends in sexual exploitation and sex trafficking. The forum is rooted in a new high school curriculum on exploitation and trafficking that is now being implemented at Madison and David Douglas.

The curriculum was developed by Libby Spears, who directed the documentary, PLAYGROUND: The Child Sex Trade in America, which was largely filmed in Portland. We have since been using the film to raise awareness and empower youth and look forward to engaging with the community of and around Portland.

HUMAN FIRST –TODAY

What does it mean to shed our labels and be seen as human first? Not student, not teacher, not job, gender, or age: but human. This is the question explored by an exciting new play written and directed by award-winning playwright Matthew B. Zrebski along with the students of Wilson High School. A production of Kaiser Permanente's Educational Theatre Program, in collaboration with Oregon Children's Theatre, this unique theatrical experience features professional actors performing alongside Wilson High School students, excavating the complex issues related to mental well being, identity, and community.

When: Thursday, May 21st at 7:00 pm

Where: Cosgrove Auditorium at Wilson High School
1151 SW Vermont St Portland, OR

Admission: Free

Run time: One hour
