My Life Matters* Assembly During Tutor Time

The My Life Matters Assembly will focus on hearing and understanding students' perspectives from around Wilson High School and the community. Every student's life at Wilson is important and this assembly will help empower students around current issues and give them the tools needed to help make our world a better place.

Mr. Trojan, Wilson Auditorium, 7pm

Mr. Trojan is an all-men's pageant for charity. All of the proceeds from the event will go directly to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. Come by to see the eleven senior boys strut their stuff! The winner of the event will receive a scholarship and will get to bear the name of Mr. Trojan 2017. Admission is $7 adults/$5 students.

NEWS

New: Wilson Robotics News

The season started in September with over 4,500 teams competing around the world—four of those teams from Wilson. Through a series of elimination tournaments, by March only about 300 teams were left, including Wilson's Team 7776, Loose Screws. Last weekend in Tacoma they competed in the Western U.S. Regional Competition and finished 15th in their 36-team division, placing them in the top 3% of all teams in the U.S. Congratulations on a great season to the entire team and especially seniors Sam Johnson and Nathan Haight, founding members of the Wilson Robotics Club. Team members are: Captain Sam Johnson, Alissa Bergquist, Benjamin Carleton, Nathan Haight, Sean Harrington, Noah Koontz, Thomas Lemoine, Jake Makuch, and Rispa Vranka Wafula.

Wilson's 2017 Rose Princess

Senior Maggie Beutler has been selected as Wilson's representative on the Rose Festival Court. Born in Guixi, China, Maggie is the daughter of Toija and William Beutler and hopes to major in English in college and become a writer for film and television.

Wilson Scholarship Winner

Senior Diana Fajer has been awarded the Oregon State University Presidential Scholarship, the most prestigious awarded by OSU. The scholarship provides $40,000 over the student's undergraduate career ($10,000 renewable for four years). Congratulations, Diana!

PIL Solo & Ensemble Results

Wilson's Chamber Orchestra is going to State for large string ensembles, and Annia Hedlund won the mezzo soprano category and is going to State! To add to that excitement, Finn Henell is PIL winner on solo trombone. All of these amazing musicians will head to state competition on April 29. Congratulations and good luck!

How and Why to Help your Teen get Enough Sleep

(Excerpts from YourTeenMagazine interview with Arianna Huffington)

Research shows the majority of teenagers are sleep-deprived. How does not getting enough sleep impact our teens?

The impact can be severe, and sleep is a particular problem for teens. Studies have shown that insufficient sleep is directly linked to stress and anxiety in teens. And with the distraction of technology and school start times that are too early across much of the country, a high percentage of our teens are not getting adequate sleep.

Support Wilson PTA, Buy Scrip

Scrip is an easy way to support the PTA that costs you nothing extra! This program works with local and national vendors, including most of your favorite grocers, restaurants and retailers. Leave your order with the Wilson Bookkeeper on Monday, pick up your scrip on Friday afternoon. Or place your order by phone, postal mail, or e-mail! Contact Martha Schulte (schulte@easystreet.net; 503-244-5072) for more information or to place an order. Download order forms here.

Last Day of School is Now June 15

Because of the snow days in December and January, the PPS Board of Education voted to restore instructional hours by canceling all late openings and early releases and extending the school year by an additional day until June 14th. Staff is reviewing other calendar adjustments to address lost school days. Stay tuned!

COMMUNITY

Free Week at Camp Erin

Do you know a grieving child or teen? Camp Erin is a weekend overnight camp for children and teens ages 6-17 who have experienced the death of someone close to them. At Camp Erin, kids have the opportunity to be around other kids who have experienced similar losses. They participate in fun, traditional camp activities (swimming, fishing, arts & crafts, games, campfires, and more) while gaining a better understanding of their own grief. Camp Erin is free to all families and runs August 11-13 in Boring, Oregon. For more information, contact Christi Crowley at camperinportland@providence.org or 503-215-5879.

CONNECTIONS

The Wilson Daily Bulletin is an electronic newsletter full of useful information and interesting news emailed to Wilson students, parents, staff, and community members. The Bulletin is published every day. The Monday Edition has the widest distribution and includes more general announcements; Thursday-Friday the focus is on events more specific to the school and what goes on in the building during school hours. Archives can be found online at the Wilson website. If you would like to be added (specify whether you would like to be on the daily list or just the Monday list) or removed from the distribution list, send your email address to Valeurie Friedman at vfriedman@pps.net. Have good news to share about Wilson students or alumni? Send the details to Valeurie Friedman at vfriedman@pps.net.
