

NAME	APPOINTED BY:	Brief biography
Paul Anthony	PPS Board of Directors
Paul Bubl	Superintendent, PPS teacher representative
Grace Groom	Superintendent, PPS teacher representative
Robert Cantwell	PAPSA	Robert (Bob) is the Assistant Director of Special Education for PPS and the parent of an 8th grader at Jackson Middle School. He was born in Oregon but grew up on the east coast near Philadelphia. Bob holds degrees from the University of Scranton and Lewis & Clark College. He started out his career as a teacher of Deaf and Hard of Hearing children and is proficient in American Sign Language and German. After special education teaching tenures in Alaska (8 years) and in Germany (8 years), Bob returned to Portland in 2008 with his wife and three daughters. He earned his administrative certificates from the University of Portland and Lewis & Clark College, where he is also an adjunct faculty member. Bob has spent his career working and advocating for historically underserved children and families. Bob's wife is also a special education teacher who currently works for Columbia Regional Program.
Beth Cavanaugh	PTA
Scott Bailey	SACET	I am a PPS graduate, as are my two kids, and my wife is a PPS teacher. I am a long-time school activist, and currently am president of Community & Parents for Public Schools. I'm a member of SACET and have served on just about every PPS facilities committee over the past 16 years, including the recent bond committee. As a member of the Jefferson Critical Friends, I was part of a group that successfully persuaded PPS to do a district-wide boundary review. I work as an economist.
Johanna Colgrove	PTA
Katie Davidson	Superintendent's Student Advisory Committee	Katie Davidson is a fourth generation PPS student and a third generation student at Grant High School. She got involved with SuperSAC during her sophomore year and last year she served as the Student Representative on the PPS School Board. She has also served on the Grant Design Advisory Group for the upcoming remodel and she is currently sitting on the Grant High School Site Council.
Lorna Fast Buffalo Horse	PAPSA	Lorna Fast Buffalo Horse has been a high school principal since 2005, serving the Roosevelt Campus, at a PPS charter school, and currently at Alliance High School. She has served as Chair of the Oregon state Accreditation Council, on the PPS High School Action Team, and the PPS Educational Options Review Committee. She has taught K-12 and adult education in Oregon and Washington, served as a district ESL/Bilingual, Migrant Education, and Indian Education Coordinator for the Shelton School District, as the Homeless Literacy Coordinator for the Oregon Department of Education and as an adjunct faculty member for Portland State University, Lewis and Clark College, and Northwest Indian College. She is currently a doctoral student at Portland State University and has two sons who graduated from Franklin High School, as well as one who attended NAYA and PCC.

NAME	APPOINTED BY:	Brief biography
Maxine Fitzpatrick	Coalition of Communities of Color	Maxine Fitzpatrick has served as Executive Director of the Portland Community Reinvestment Initiatives for over 20 years. Over the past five years, she successfully integrated more than 300 units of additional affordable rental housing formerly held by the now defunct Albina Community Development Corporation bringing PCRI's portfolio of rental units to more than 700. She is leading PCRI on an ambitious plan to substantially increase additional units of affordable rental housing in North/Northeast Portland, an area where it is becoming increasingly more difficult to find affordable rental housing.
Pamela Kislak	Superintendent	Pamela has two children in PPS. Her deep involvement in school communities has included volunteering in classrooms, launching the ACCESS Academy Foundation, and serving as school PTA President. Professionally, Pamela is a strategy consultant to non-profit organizations. She also spent 15 years working in educational technology. Originally from NYC, Pamela holds degrees from Dartmouth College and the University of California, Berkeley
Heather Leek	Superintendent
Sheila Martin	Civic Partners: PSU Population Research Center	Sheila Martin is Director of the Institute of Portland Metropolitan Studies and the Population Research Center at Portland State University. She is also a faculty member in the Nohad A. Toulon School of Urban Studies and Planning and the parent of a PPS student.
Jason Trombley	SACET	Jason is a PPS graduate and a member of the Coalition of Communities of Color. His service to PPS includes cochair of SACET, member of the Achievement Compact Advisory Committee and volunteer coach for the Lincoln High School constitution team.
Pam Knowles	PPS Board of Directors	Pam was elected to the PPS Board in 2011. She holds degrees from Oregon State University and Northwestern School of Law at Lewis and Clark College. Pam has held positions at Oregon State University, the Portland Business Alliance, Portland Center Stage and as a high school social studies teacher. Her volunteer service has included Board of Director positions for the Nike School Innovation Fund, Regional Arts and Culture Council and PTA president at Buckman Arts. She has three sons, all of whom were educated in PPS.
Leesha Posey	Superintendent
Raul Preciado Mendez	Coalition of Communities of Color	Raul works at Latino Network as the Civic Engagement, Leadership & Policy Coordinator. He is currently attending Portland State University in his second year of the Masters in Public Policy. Prior to Latino Network, Raul worked at the State of Oregon's Department of Human Services, the Oregon Community Foundation, and Portland State University. Raul has an interest in anti-poverty policy and its intersections with housing, education, and economics.
Vacant	Superintendent's Student Advisory Committee
Vacant	Civic Partners	