

NORDSTROM FASHION AMBASSADORS

Who: High Schools Students (10th-12th grade)

What: This is a program for students who are interested in pursuing careers in fashion or with Nordstrom who are looking to gain more knowledge in areas such as Buying, Trend Forecasting, Visual Merchandising, Leadership, Communication, Interviewing, and much, much more! You will learn the ins and the outs of the industry and be an insider to influence the BP, Savvy, and Topshop buyers because you are our customers! You also receive a 15% off discount on select departments; BP, Savvy, Rail, and BP Shoes!

When: Meetings are held the first Saturday of every month at 10 AM.

Where: Nordstrom Washington Square
9700 SW Washington Square Rd.
Tigard, OR 97223

Why: Give you a grasp on what it looks like to be in the Fashion Industry and within Nordstrom. You are able to have insight to help pursue future careers. A lot of students end up working for our company. Currently, there are 2 store managers in the Northwest who started on the Fashion Ambassadors program, previously known as the Fashion Board. You are also automatically receive a $1,000 scholarship to FIDM for being a part of the program!

How to Apply: Visit www.nordstrom.com/fashionambassador and apply by April 7th.

Questions? Contact Elyse Sparks, program coordinator at Elyse.Sparks@nordstrom.com

"It's fun to be in a professional environment that promotes collaboration with other participants who share the same passion for fashion—whether it's in design, marketing, visual or styling."

—Rayah, former Fashion Ambassador