

PPS TITLE VI INDIAN EDUCATION

TALKING CIRCLE

June 2018

SUMMER CLASSES, PROGRAMS & INTERNSHIPS

JUNE
25 - 29

Oregon Writing Project

Young writers (grades 6-9) will write, talk, & learn in workshops with Lewis & Clark College instructors. Learn to take risks in writing, turn memory into fiction, fiction into poetry.

JULY 9 -
AUG 3

NAYA Family Center's 9th Grade Counts Program

This program provides additional academic support and college/career experiences, helping more students graduate from high school and go on to further education and training. Apply ASAP!

APPLY BY
JULY 30

Internship - Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board, We Are Healers, & We R Native

AI/AN youth (14-24 year olds) interested in pursuing healthcare careers are eligible for a $600 stipend to cover internship and/or travel time.

VALID UNTIL
SEPT 1

1 FREE SATURDAY ACADEMY CLASS

The Howard Vollum Scholarship Fund of the Oregon Community Foundation provides scholarships for Native American students (grades 5-12) participating in a science, technology, engineering or math (STEM) class. Up to $300 for any class or camp.

FREE Lunch + Play in Portland Parks

Nutritious meals and recreational activities will be offered in 25 parks over the summer. Children under 10 must be accompanied by an adult. Visit Portland Parks & Recreation for locations & details.

Visit the SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES page on www.pps.net/indian-education for applications and additional details

For questions & inquiries email indianeducation@pps.net

5210 N Kerby, Portland, OR 97217 / pps.net/indian-education / (503) 916-6499 / Facebook

