4 day week - No Wednesday Schedule

Synchronous: Also known as Live Learning, students will participate in live virtual classrooms and webinars. Teachers will use a variety of strategies to present content, have student practice with the work, use breakout groups, and develop their skills. Teachers are available 75 minutes.

Asynchronous (AL): Also known as Asynchronous Learning, during these blocks the teacher is available and may start out class with a whole class check in, and then students work on content through pre-recorded lessons, readings, podcasts, videos, practice problems, activities, and assignments Some are online, while others may be offline. Teachers are available for 45 min of the class to assist students.

Small Group Instruction (SGI): Teachers may pull students into small group learning to provide challenge, enrichment, support or extra instruction in both models.

Applied Learning: This is time to work on independent routines, practices and application of teacher facilitated learning.

Office Hours: When teachers are free for students to “drop in” to ask questions or get additional assistance.
