

GOT GENTLY USED BOOKS?

The Children's Book Bank brings you the sixth annual Children's Book Harvest book drive gathering books for thousands of children in our community who might not otherwise have books of their own at home!

Bring in your outgrown gently used books appropriate for babies, toddlers, and elementary age children through 3rd grade. Used books in good condition and new books are welcome.

Drop them in our designated donation boxes by November 9!

Please no classroom sets, ex-school library books, outdated books, coloring books, magazines, textbooks, activity books, damaged or musty books, or books for adults.

For more information about desperately needed multicultural books or to find out how to donate cash, visit www.childrensbookbank.org.

The Children's Book Harvest book drive supports The Children's Book Bank in providing books to thousands of children in our community who would otherwise have no books of their own. Your gently used donations are cleaned, restored, and carefully curated into an exciting mix of age appropriate books for personal home libraries or book fairs, and your cash donations fund the purchase of new culturally relevant and home-language books ensuring that every child has the affirming and validating experience of seeing themselves reflected in the books they read.
