From the Principal's Desk...

Dear Families,

It has been far too long between newsletters. I apologize for that. November, with conferences and short weeks, flew by far too quickly. We are back to full weeks, with fifteen school days until Winter Break. We want to make the most of those days.

With all of the time that has passed, I have a lot of catching up to do. We had a successful Apple Harvest event, which I hope you were able to attend. Parent Conferences were well attended and, I hope, informative to you. If you were unable to attend parent conferences, I encourage you to contact your child's teacher prior to Winter Break to get information on their progress.

Last week, we held our Academic All Stars celebration for students who earned Honor Roll or Principal's List. For first quarter, this was for 7th and 8th graders only, as 6th graders did not receive grades in all subjects. For second quarter, 6th graders will be included. A list of the honorees is on page two of this newsletter.

I wanted to let you know about the December 13 PTA meeting, where we will hold elections for PTA officers. Elections are necessary because Dave Arpin, the PTA President is moving to Oregon City.

This Wednesday night, staff from Madison High School will be here to meet with parents and students. Our students feed into Madison, so this is a great opportunity for parents of 8th graders to get questions answered about high school and programs that Madison offers. The meeting will be at 6:00 PM in the library.
