Announcing new principal at Astor, Blake Robertson

April 2020

Dear Astor Community,

I am pleased to announce that Blake Robertson will be the new principal at Astor K-8 School starting in the 2020-21 school year. Blake is an educational leader who is committed to strong family partnerships, supporting teachers in building instructional practices, and racial equity.

He will succeed Sarah Zabel, who has been Astor's principal since 2017. We thank Sarah for her dedication and hard work.

Blake has been assistant principal at Jason Lee for four years and is familiar with the K-8 structure. Jason Lee was a K-8 school for his first two years before it converted to an elementary school. He supported instruction through math interventions in the classroom and by delivering professional development. Blake also led the school's climate and culture team, refocusing professional development on racial equity and giving all students a sense of belonging.
