

Bright warm sunny day
Children sitting laughing talking Teachers quieting down kids older ones crowded whispering

Drums playing loud beats
Kids listening with excitement
Rodolfo explaining the art
From the fiction to non-fiction

- Dancers with bright colors
Long feathers my culture
- kids running to mural
 - Dancing laughing having fun
 - last song classes departing
 - Back to last class
 - Not wanting to leave
 - Big smiles every face.

people young and old Really short Really tall sitting, kneeling, and standing waiting, waiting, and waiting little-ones hopping up... Down Everyone waiting anticipation growing Excitement spreading like fire cant wait any longer

black plastic bag hanging bag lifts we see...
colors dark colors light shapes mystical, and real

our hard work displayed oos and awws surround gasps and many claps
as pride fills beach

Teachers scream and shout sit down sit down
Kids continue to stand
Despite their furious educators

Dancing turkeys, aztecs too sky is super blue cant see anything, not Everybody in the way

Mural unveiled, awesome possum Gods, bulls, Seahorse, Phoenix very colorful and happy Everybody's happy to see worked on by everybody

Too hot for it
Hard to really say
Surrounded by a sea
of most total gray

Phoenix burning up
A seahorse flying away
The Taj-Mahal behind tiger
A ball being kicked

A dolphin jumping out
Dots over dots everywhere
Dots covering any-thing, every-thing
Deep big blue sea

Eagle flying in sky
Aztec warrior brave, strong kids sit like statues
Not making any noise

Minotaur with big horns
Adolescents standing and talking
Teachers scolding them "Loudly"
And my poem over

The day was sunny
Children sitting and laughing
Older kids smiling & clapping
Everyone was sitting outside.

Dancing, music, people, singing.
~~But~~ The time was near.
They showed the mural.
Everyone claps and cheers.

Different colors Red, Blue.
Yellow, orange, Pink & Purple.
~~Our~~ our ideas put together.
Animals, people, nature & more.

Beautiful it was cool.

We felt proud
^{at} all our hard work.

It was ^{at} amazing

A bright sunny day
The air feels warm
The whole school outside
Screaming laughing yelling talking

Mr. Breukman starts to talk
He talks about stuff
The aztec dancers dance
The aztec men sing

The little kids laugh
The older kids smile
The teachers smile big Kids start to dance

We see the mural
All the beautiful colors
All the amazing designs
Made it all worthwhile

The day was sunny.
Students and teachers every-where Rodolfo talked to us.
We listened with excitement.

The aztec dancers danced
Along with native music
Students dancing with happiness atztec dancers finished dancing

The exiting moment arrived
The unveiling of mural
We all waited anxiously
We saw the mural.

We were all amazed
We were all proud
Its time to go
Students leave with joy.
