CALIFORNIA NAVEL ORANGES

Seen here in a 20# carton, they are grown in the Central San Joaquin Valley.

- These oranges offer the best in flavor and provide 130% of your daily Vitamin C value.
- The navel orange has a moderately thick rind, which makes this fruit easy to just peel and eat.
- Growers pick the fruit fresh and juicy, when the combination of sugars and citric acid is just right.
- Buy a carton today, and enjoy one of nature's most delicious treats!
