WINTER PLAY OPENS FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12

In Andrew Wardenaar's deeply moving and suspenseful new myth, there is a pool behind the old, brick school. Within that pool lives a being . . . a body . . . a reflection of youth. This being began as raindrops on a window. It trickled down into a basin, and took human form. Water is a wonder to behold, but the teenagers that come to this sacred place see only their imperfections . . . their grief . . . their self-loathing. And so they harden, becoming rooted in their inadequacy, joining the grove of trees that rest here. It always happens this way. It always has. Except once. Only once, long ago. But is Jonathan different? Is Melanie different? Will they see through the surface? Will they hear the song of the trees?

The fourth installment of (SW)2's collaboration with Playwrights West, The Pool Behind the Old Brick School is not to be missed!

Performance dates:

Friday, February 12, 7:00pm

Saturday, February 13, 7:00pm

Sunday, February 14, 2:00pm

Thursday, February 18, 7:00pm

Friday, February 19, 7:00pm

Saturday, February 20, 7:00pm

Tickets are $15/adults, $10/students and educators. Purchase tickets online or at the door. Seating is limited. Play recommended for middle school audiences and older for mature themes and intensity.
