A RENEWED SENSE OF PRIDE FOR HER SCHOOL

Her latest article reflects on her renewed sense of pride in our school after a visit to a neighboring one. A PARENT'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE ARTS

Ever wondered where our young students get their talent? Just look at our parents. A perfect example is David Garnand (photographer) - parent of Isaac (Wilson), Tom (Wilson), and Isabelle (Maplewood), and husband of Liz Garnand, president of Wilson Area Arts Council. David's first solo abstract nature photography show opened last weekend at Multnomah Arts Center and runs through May 27 (MAC Hours: Monday-Friday 9am-9:30pm and Saturday 9am-12:30pm). In addition to this exhibition, two of David's photographs were selected by the Lake Oswego Festival of the Arts 2009 Artist's Vision Juried Show, and he also generously donated one of his photographs for the recent Wilson Auction. David states that his dad always had a camera with him when they traveled. "He loved taking scenic pictures, vistas, beautiful nature scenes. When he gave me his Kodak Instamatic I looked through the viewfinder and saw a whole other world." So stop by the Multnomah Arts Center and take a look at David's exhibit. Check out his website at: <http://www.davidgarnand.com>. Congratulations, David!

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

This week we introduce you to Alex Rubenstein '04. After graduating from Wilson, Alex headed off to college. He is currently finishing his undergraduate degree at the University of Washington in Seattle, WA. Alex will graduate in June, 2009 with a double degree: a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, and a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration with a concentration in Human Resources Management. In the fall 2009, Alex will be starting a doctoral program in Management--Organizational Behavior at the University of Florida. "This field explores the human side of organizations, using Psychological and Sociological theory to examine how individuals can influence organizations, and vice versa," states Alex. "I hope to develop interventions and prescriptions which can be implemented in organizations to help improve issues of individual/team motivation, leadership development, voluntary turnover, and overall workplace effectiveness. After this program is over, I plan to continue studying these topics as well as teach, as a tenured faculty member at a research-oriented university." When asked about his time at Wilson, Alex said his was grateful for the guidance he received. "To discuss how Wilson has molded me into the person I am today, the opportunities presented to me, from advanced classes to student government, really taught me to never settle and always challenge myself if I thought I could handle it," adds Alex. "I would like to thank Mr. Marchese, Mr. Meiner and Mr. Murphy, coaches and teachers, for motivating me to work hard and achieve my potential. I don't know if I would be pursuing a Ph.D. right now if it weren't for their guidance to develop my character and establish my work ethic." Alex' brother, Jason was a graduate of Wilson in 2001. His parents are Jaime and Gary Rubenstein, who currently live in Austin, Texas.

MAY IS THE LAST MONTH THIS SCHOOL YEAR TO DONATE CLOTHES TO THE PPS/PTA CLOTHING CENTER!

We'll be collecting donations for the PTA Clothing Center through May. The Center is closed during most of the summer but opens again in late August to provide clothing to kids for the 2009-2010 school year. The back-to-school rush is the Center's busiest season and now is the time of year when we collect and process clothes for the Fall. With the downturn in the economy, the number of children requesting clothing from the Center is way up. Help brighten students' start of next school year by donating gently used clothes and shoes now! Supplies like backpacks and umbrellas are also needed. The Center provides free clothing to students in need within the Portland Public school district. It is entirely volunteer-run and dependent on donations. There is a labeled white bin in the main office where you or your kids can drop clothes anytime the office is open. Tax receipt donation forms and applications for obtaining clothes from the Center are available from the office staff. Questions? Call Mari Vandewettering, 503-464-7899.
