Students

*FOR 2/20 Mrs. Walker's MWH classes - Reminder to be in your designated classroom by 11:45 (during lunch) for our field trip. Help each other to remember please! [Walker]

Juniors and Sophomores! Constitution Team will be returning to Wilson next school year. With forecasting for the 2015-16 school year about to begin, interested students should attend one of two informational meetings to learn more about this unique and exciting Government/Economics class. An overview of the class and the "We The People" competition will be provided, so come on by with your questions or to discover more about the program. Stop by room 127 on Tuesday, February, 24th during lunch or on Wednesday, February 25th at 3:30pm. [Campeau]

Poetry Out Loud! All students interested in participating in Wilson's Poetry Out Loud competition, please sign up in the Library. All students are welcome to participate and come to the event and watch. Prize for 1st place, and light refreshments for all. [Linda Campillo]

Hello! Come out to this spring session of Outdoor School! Get a card from the office and turn it in by March 11th. Outdoor School is a great way to get involved and have fun teaching 6th graders about the outdoors! Contact seniors Maren Scribner or Gillian Bergmann for more info. [Scribner]

Students and Families: Do you have summer plans? If not, please join us for Wilson's SW Community Service Fair! Event is Wednesday, February 18th, 8:30am-9:30am (before the 2hr late opening) in the Wilson Main Hallway. Our goal is to provide service opportunities for our high school students to connect with local partners and contribute to our community. This is a perfect opportunity for students who want to gain work experience and need service experience for college applications. It's never too early to start! There will be over 15 local organizations who provide youth volunteer, intern, and summer camp opportunities! If you have any further questions please feel free to contact me. [Kate Morgan kmorgan@pps.net]

The Portland Workforce Alliance is looking for 20 -25 more Mock Interviewers for the NW Youth Career Expo on March 17th. Volunteers must have strong interviewing experience and be able to engage successfully and happily with the students. There are three other roles we need 10-15 more volunteers: 1) student check in/line volunteers and 2) we need people to give presentations on resume and interview or 3) be in the room to answer student questions. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Natalie Miller (PWA Board member) at 1-503-799-5362 or Natalie.Miller@LHH.com [Erica Meyers]

Dance Team is Alive and Well! And you can be a part of it! Please come to an informational meeting Thursday, Feb 19 @ 5:45 in the Cafeteria to learn more. All students and parents welcome. Meet the interim coaches and get an idea of what to expect. It's not what you think! Get in on the ground floor of the chance of your lifetime. We already have performances scheduled this Spring! Please direct questions to Maureen grumpyswife925@gmail.com or 503-703-3594. [Berrie-Lawson]

Parents

District-Wide PTA Parent Education Night, March 9 in the Wilson High Library at 6:30 - 8:00 PM

Topic: Training for Parents of Students with IEPs
Presenters: FACT Oregon (Family and Community Together)

Parents of children receiving special education in high school need to understand how to prepare for their child's transition to adulthood. Please join us to talk about the following:

- Creating a vision for life after school
- The role of self-determination
- The role of the IEP
- How to access adult services in your community
- Guardianship

On Monday, March 9, from 6:30 – 8:00 PM, the Wilson High School PTA will be hosting a district-wide training for parents of students with IEPs who will also soon be transitioning out of high school. The training will be in the library, and it will be run by FACT (Family and Community Together) Oregon. Registrants will register directly with FACT Oregon. Questions should also be directed to them. Here is a link to the flyer in English: <http://factoregon.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/11/Transition-to-Adulthood-March-9-2015-Wilson-PTA.pdf>. Here is a link to the flyer in Spanish: <http://factoregon.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/11/Transition-to-Adulthood-March-9-2015-Wilson-PTA-SPAN.pdf>. On the flyer, it asks parents to register. From the registration information, FACT assembles numbers and contacts, which they then use to remind parents about the training.

FACT will

- Provide interpretation for all languages if requested at registration
- Provide materials for the training if needed in Spanish, Russian, and Vietnamese
- Provide this training for free to families and any professionals that attend
