Students

Join SouthWest StageWorks, YOUR Wilson High School Theatre Company, for our final mainstage production of the year, Future Tense! A collection of short plays written by legendary writer Ray Bradbury, these intense and profound works of theatre foresaw much of what we experience right now in the 21st Century. These powerful works are not to be missed!

Future Tense performs May 8th through May 16th, with tickets available at the door, or online at southweststageworks.blogspot.com

ATTENTION SENIORS:

Remember your fees for official transcripts ($1 per official transcript) sent this year to colleges need to be paid before you can get cleared to pick up your graduation tickets. See Megan Meisner, bookkeeper in room 120, or Sharon Dailey in the counseling office.

SENIORS: Want to read names at graduation?

Stop in the Main Office by Fri. May 8 for information on requirements and sign up to audition.

Congratulations to Maia Hoffman for winning 1st Place in the OSAA State Solo Competition for viola, for the 4th year in a row!!! Also, congratulations to Gillian Bergmann, soprano and Maggie Conroy, alto - both placed very well in their respective categories at the OSAA State Solo Competition!

There is an excellent opportunity for students who self-identify as Asian-American to attend the Asian-American Youth Leadership Conference at Concordia University on May 15th. You will be able to network with other students around the city of Portland and learn about culturally specific organization, academic resources, scholarships, artists, leaders, etc. If you are interested in going, please pick up a brochure from Ms. Suehiro in room 129 or Ms. Freeman in the Main Office.

Everyone

On Tuesday May 12 Wilson High School students interested in learning what the Wilson Sailing Team is all about are invited to sail with us. This is our once a season opportunity to share our sport with potential sailors. If you are interested in joining us on May 12 please email Belle Lemoine at bellelemoine@gmail.com. Anybody coming to sail will need to bring a signed waiver, link below.

Opportunities

Hello Wilson Girls and Families!

Are you interested or curious about hands-on related careers? Women in Trades Career Fair High School Girls Day will be held Friday, May 15th, from 9:00am- 1:30pm. It is the largest non-traditional career fair of its kind. Its goal is to increase the overall number of women working in the trades. Last year students had the opportunity to build planter boxes, make birdhouses, pour concrete, and many more fun hands-on activities!

If you would like to attend this career day or need any further information please speak with Mrs. Morgan in room 221 or email kmorgan@pps.net.

Looking for academic challenge this summer? The University of Oregon's 2015 Summer Enrichment Program is accepting applications. Students live on campus for this two week college immersive program. For more information on the requirements and application process go to uoyetag@uoregon.edu/sep

Calling all Teenagers!
