And, for that always burning question for Seniors:

NOTE: Students who are 18 may not excuse themselves from school or specific class periods. To excuse any student absence, the district requires notification from the parent/guardian regardless of student age. The ONLY exception to this rule is if a student has been legally emancipated from their parents and provides proof of such court action. In that case, schools may accept a written notification from the student.

Students

Wilson Theatre Arts and SouthWest StageWorks welcomes you to our Season Kickoff TODAY at 3:45pm in the Drama Room, 108. Bring a treat (or not) and join us to reconnect with the great people that make (SW)2 such a great group! Hear about our projects this year, including the Improv Team, our trips, the OneAct Festivals, and this fall's mainstage production, the Tony Award-winning In The Heights! See you then! [J. Miller, Artistic Director]

Everyone

The Life Skills program at Wilson is starting a new enterprise for students who want to build their mechanical skills: The Green Team Bike Shop. This will be a student-run enterprise that builds and repairs bicycles, incorporates financial and business education, and provides hands-on experience. In order to make this project work, we need donations of tools. Any bike and mechanics tools will be appreciated.

This includes most automotive tools such as wrenches, power tools such as hand-held drills, as well as bike specific tools. We would also love to have some bike shop fixtures such as a bike repair stand, wheel truing stand, and a vise. Please help us spread the word to those who may have tools to donate.
