WHO KNEW THAT PURSES WERE SO POWERFUL!

After expenses, the Wilson Area Arts Council raised $5002.93 from the first-ever In the Bag: Benefit for the Arts. The funds raised from the pop-up purse sale were distributed to the four music programs at Wilson High School - choir, orchestra, drama/musical theater and band. Click here to read more about how these funds will be used and to check out the photos from the pop-up purse sale: http://www.wilsonarts.org/ACCOMPLISHMENTS/IN\_THE\_BAG\_2010.htm. Again, thanks to everyone that donated a purse, bought a purse, and helped to keep the music alive! See you next year! Linda Doyle and Jaci Evans, In the Bag organizers

She has a 7' x 9' office, so ideal measurements would be 54" on one side and 72" on the other. She also needs it to have two big file drawers as part of the desk to try and store all her paperwork. She would be happy to facilitate the acquisition of a tax-deductible receipt for any family who has one of these to donate. Contact Kathy at: kgarrett@pps.k12.or.us.

PARENT/STUDENT BOOK GROUP – BOOKS HAVE ARRIVED

Linda Campillo, Wilson Librarian, is organizing a new parent/student book group to participate in the Multnomah County Library's Everybody Reads. Wilson has copies of the book, so students can start checking them out. Free tickets for the author lecture on March 7th. The ninth annual Everybody Reads selection is The Other Wes Moore by Wes Moore. If you would like to join the parent/student book group, please contact Linda Campillo at: lcampillo@pps.k12.or.us. The goal is to have the book group meet sometime in Feb. or maybe the beginning of March. The book is about two guys, with the same name who grew up in fatherless households in similar neighborhoods of Baltimore. The author became a Rhodes scholar and is a former aide to Condoleezza Rice, and he found out about the other Wes Moore when he was accused of killing a cop. Moore examines the question of how two guys from matching backgrounds can end up so differently. It's a true story, and all participants will have the opportunity to attend the author's evening lecture on March 7th at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall.
