SPEECH AND DEBATE

Last weekend Wilson Speech and Debate had a tournament at Portland State University! Our team had a great time and performed really well. We won the following awards:

1st Place Open Expository- Ulysses Duckler

1st Place Novice Prose- Chis Meabe

1st Place Novice Public Debate- Carlos Gaddie and Chris Meabe

2nd Place Novice Humorous Interp. - Daniel Crumrine

2nd Place Open Poetry- McKinley Rodriguez

Thank you parents for your help judging and driving students to and from PSU. Many thanks to Allison Faherty, Wilson's Speech & Debate coach. Go Trojans!

WILSON STUDENT ALL STARS

This month the SW Community Connection shines the light on three Wilson students for their academic excellent, achievement and leadership. Michael Briggs is a senior and his favorite class is psychology. He most likely will attend the University of Utah where he has already been accepted to film school. Ashley Ruback's favorite classes are math, AP Literature and creative writing. She would like to pursue a teaching degree in college. Nikolaus Aberle is a senior. He would like to pursue a major in political science in college. He is the co-captain of the Wilson ski team and participates in Model United Nations and Students for Environmental Action. Thanks to Gifford Family Dentistry for their sponsorship of this acknowledgment.

COLLEGE PLANNING 101 PARENTS, FEBRUARY 2

This seminar on Wednesday, February 2 at 7:00pm at the Mittleman Jewish Community Center (MJCC) will help you understand today's college admissions process, how to build a winning student profile and whether to choose the SAT or ACT. Learn when students should take these tests, as well as how the tests impact merit based award decisions. Other topics include Private vs. Public colleges and factors to consider when choosing schools. This seminar is offered by AcerLogic Educational Services, LLC. FREE. Note: Wilson counselors get concerned about pushing students too hard or too fast; please keep your student's counselor informed about your college planning activities and decisions so we can work as a team in your student's best interest.

“I’M ON CAMPUS, NOW WHAT?” FEBRUARY 16

A successful college experience happens when a student is well placed academically and socially. But how do you know what college will be right for you? This session offered by the Hillsdale Library covers how to visit a college campus. Join Devon O'Brien in designing a campus visit that maximizes information while minimizing expenses. Devon is the founder of Destination College & Beyond and provides inspiring college planning, financial aid and career planning services that empower clients to successfully navigate the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century. Designed for teens 9-12. Wednesday, February 16 from 4-5pm @ the Hillsdale Library. FREE.

HILLSDALE MAIN STREET "LAUNCH" FEATURES MIX OF FREE EVENTS, FEBRUARY 10

How do you "launch" a street? Or, to be exact, Hillsdale's new Main Street program. Cue the hand masseuses, the face painters and the Kung Fu instructors. If you show up for the launch on Thursday, Feb. 10, you'll be able to dip truffles in chocolate (at SweetWares), have your face painted (at Paint Pots), taste wine (at Key Bank, courtesy of Korkage and at Food Front), nibble mini-kabobs (at Food Front), get a hand massage (at Salon Dirk Hair Color) and learn about the dental implications of cleft palate corrective surgery (from Hillsdale's Dr. Judah Garfinkle). Some shops, like Second to None were still pondering their activity as this issue went to press. The children's shop is considering Valentine making for kids. The wildly eclectic launch will be from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in Hillsdale's Capitol Highway commercial center. The Launching Pad, so to speak, will be Hillsdale's Key Bank, which is contributing its space and funds to sponsor the event. The idea behind the launch is to celebrate the five-pronged Hillsdale's Main Street Program, which is supported by the Portland Development Commission. Members of the Hillsdale Community Foundation raised $30,000 locally to help qualify Hillsdale for the designation. Another $8,000 needs to be raised before April 1. The Launch is a "family-friendly event" for the entire community and it's free.

ROBERT GRAY STUDENT ALL STARS

This month the SW Community Connection shines the light on three Robert Gray MS students for their academic excellent, achievement and leadership. Alec MacDoanld-Factor is an eighth grader. His favorite subject is journalism and would like to write for his high school newspaper. Azure Morago-Navarro is an eighth grader and enjoys literature. She hopes to study French in high school. Weston Pate is an eighth grader. His favorite class is science and would like to continue science and Spanish in high school. Thanks to Hillsdale Chiropractic & Rehabilitation Center and Pediatrics at Fanno Creek Clinic for their sponsorship of this acknowledgment.

ROBERT GRAY MS MULTICULTURAL FAIR, FEBRUARY 8

Everyone is invited to join with the Robert Gray Middle School community to celebrate diverse world cultures at the annual MULTICULTURAL FAIR. This year's event is scheduled for Tuesday, February 8th from 5:30 to 8:00 pm. Entertainment will include a performance by Grupo Condor (Latin American folk music) and both Greek and Irish dancers. Entry to the festivities is free to all and food from around the globe will be available for purchase. Hands-on activities and student displays will round out a fun, family evening. Come join us!

K-12 GREEN PRIZE

National Environmental Education Foundation Invites Applications From K-12 Public Schools for Green Prize in Public Education. K-12 public schools across the United States can win up to $10,000 in recognition of their success in "greening" their academics, operations, grounds and facilities, and/or community engagement efforts. Deadline: February 15, 2011. For details, click here: http://neefusa.org/grants/green_prize.htm.

APPLY FOR YOUNG NATURALISTS AWARDS

The American Museum of Natural History and the ALCOA Foundation are accepting applications for the Young Naturalist Awards from middle and high school students (grades 7 to 12) across the United States and Canada. The inquiry-based research competition was created to promote active participation in the sciences and stimulate youth to explore science careers. The program encourages students to independently explore the natural world and pursue in-depth scientific research in the areas of biology, Earth science, ecology, and astronomy. Contestants form hypotheses, conduct research, plan experiments, gather data, and report their findings in an essay. Twelve winning students will be honored at a ceremony at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. Winners will receive a scholarship as well as paid trip to the awards ceremony, where they will meet with scientists and take a behind-the-scenes tour of the museum. In addition, winning contestants will have their essays featured on the AMNH Web site. Deadline: March 1, 2011. For details, click here: <http://www.amnh.org/nationalcenter/youngnaturalistawards/index.html>.
