Refreshments will be provided after the competition. Contact, allison.faherty@gmail.com for additional information. Everyone is invited.

AP REGISTRATION DEADLINE, FEBRUARY 24

The registration deadline is Thursday, February 24 for the AP exams. Students scoring well may earn college credit at colleges and universities; however it is best to check with specific colleges to learn about their criteria. The cost is $89 per exam. The tests will be the first two weeks in May. Financial assistance is available for students on Free and Reduced Lunch or for those that qualify. Student registration and financial assistance forms are available in the Main Office or on the Wilson website (www.pps.k12.or.us/schools/wilson/602.htm). Bring your completed registration, with payment (financial aid recipients need no payment), to the main office by February 24. Late registrations will incur a substantial late fee. Also, the "Bulletin for AP Students and Parents" http://professionals.collegeboard.com/profdownload/Bulletin\_for\_AP\_Students\_and\_Parents\_2010-2011.pdf has a wealth of information regarding the AP program and exams. We have developed a list of free study sites for the exams http://www.pps.k12.or.us/schools/wilson/files/APpreparationhelp\(1\).pdf.pdf). The AP® (Advanced Placement) is a CollegeBoard® program designed to prepare students to succeed in college-level classes. Every spring, students, predominantly those who have taken AP courses but not required, are invited to take exams. If a student's score meets certain criteria, colleges may grant college credit. For additional questions, contact Abby Menashe, amenashe@pps.k12.or.us

PTA PARENT EDUCATION EVENT, FEBRUARY 28
TEENS IN CRISIS: HOW TO TELL, HOW TO HELP
FEBRUARY 28, 6-8PM, WILSON CAFETERIA

Many things in a teen's life can lead to a crisis situation: school and social pressures, conflicts with friends or family, depression, drug and/or alcohol use. Sometimes even everyday and seemingly innocuous activities such as video game playing, texting or Facebook can become problematic obsessions. Our panel will focus on recognizing the signs that a teen might be in a dangerous crisis situation or have obsessive or addictive habits, and help you with strategies for what to do to help them manage their lives, and how to get help from school and other resources. Panelists include: Wilson Vice-Principal Maude Lamont; Wilson counselor Keith Brown; Shawn Marshall, MA, LPC, The Children's Program; and Leslie Storm, Crisis Services Director, Oregon Partnership. Please join us at 6:00pm for light refreshments. The presentation will begin at 6:30pm, followed at 7:30pm by a 30-minute question and answer session. We hope to see you there! For more information, contact Valeurie Friedman at, wilsonhighschoolpta@gmail.com. FREE

STUDENTS, WANT TO MEET THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL? MARCH 1

The City of Portland is having a community forum at Wilson HS on the evening of Tues March 1st and you can be involved! For anyone interested in community or government work, this is an easy opportunity to gain career related experience. What will I do? We need student ambassadors to welcome neighbors and help them navigate the school. Take part in small group discussions about needs in your neighborhood. Vote on your priorities. Learn how the City is using mapping technology. Why should adults have all the say? These discussions impact next year's budget decisions. Your voice is needed too! Details: The full event is 6:00-8:30pm on Tues, March 1st. Come for part or all of the discussion. All ages are welcome. Call (don't text) Abby Coppock at 503-823-6965 or, abby.coppock@portlandoregon.gov for more information. Hope to see you there!
