HORS D'OEUVRES ANYONE? ... A REVIEW BY MAUREEN-BERRIE LAWSON '78

Wilson Theatre has tended to be rather serious in the past few years. Some might even call it dark and/or macabre. The shows have all been more than worth the price of a ticket, especially considering the ages of the players. Yet again, Jamie Miller has brought a Wilson theatre alum back to direct the Winter play Hors d'Oeuvres (written by Wade McIntyre) and this practice just keeps on proving that it is a valuable process for our student actors, the theatre program and the quality of show.

In the program, guest director, Evan Thomas '07 has a few words to say about his experiences honing his craft during and since high school, discussing realism, absurdity and words. Words are what this story is about. Absurdity is how it is presented. Realism has nothing to do with any of it, well not really. The physicality involved in playing these characters and the focus the actors use to display subtlety is superb. I have not laughed so hard and long, that it made my face hurt, for quite some time. This show is a welcomed breath of fresh air to the Wilson stage. Be sure not to focus your attention in one direction for long, you might miss something!

You have a chance to catch this show for the bargain price of $8 student, $10 adult. Upcoming show times are: Feb 22-25 at 7pm. Note: This show is appropriate for an 'older' audience (middle school and up, for language and some content). Tickets are available online at <http://wilsonthespians.blogspot.com/>.

URBAN STUDIES

“PLACE” stands for Planning and Leadership Across City Environments. Our unique program, run by Catlin Gabel School in partnership with the greater Portland community, focuses on how we relate to our urban environment through smart planning and effective leadership. PLACE is for high school students and recent high school graduates from around the region. During this dynamic, interdisciplinary, and experiential program, you will learn from the city’s best minds as they grapple with decisions that shape Portland’s future. During PLACE you and a talented group of students will meet with sustainability experts, urban designers, social equity advocates and city leaders and work on planning projects. Here’s something we did last year after learning how Portland works, from the people doing the work: we teamed with community members and PSU professors to plan a new local high school that would serve as the center of a walkable community. Our work was presented to the public as well as city leaders and has since inspired local high school classes while shedding light on new ways to connect schools with their neighbors.

Program

Dates: June 25 - July 18, 2012 Times: M-F, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Cost: $850. No one will be turned away because of inability to pay.

SW HOPE: FEED THE HUNGRY 2012 KICKS OFF

More than 60 faith communities, businesses and community groups are teaming up for the 6th annual SW HOPE food and fundraising drive, which runs Feb. 19-April 1, 2012. The goal of SW HOPE is to raise 150,000 pounds of food, or the cash equivalent, to support Neighborhood House's Emergency Food Box Program, the largest on Portland's west side, which provides food assistance to approximately 500 families each month. Over the last two years, usage of the Neighborhood House Emergency Food Box program has seen an increase of almost 90% due to the decline in the economy and the increasing unemployment rate. In the last six months, Neighborhood House has distributed an average of 600 boxes a month, feeding approximately 1,800 individuals. This is a critical time for our Emergency Food Box program -- we are requesting support from the greater community to feed the most vulnerable and assist our disadvantaged neighbors, so many of whom are experiencing particularly great need at this time. SW HOPE also has kickoff events including: Burlingame Church's Raining Love on Portland Concert to Benefit SW HOPE on Feb. 25th and "A Singing Circle of Peace" Interfaith Sing-a-long and vegetarian potluck on Sunday, Feb. 26 at Hillsdale Community Church. Click here for donation sites: <http://www.nhpdx.org/SWHope/SWHope.html>.
