GREAT FALL SPORTS SEASON FOR WILSON

Wilson Athletic Director, Scott Aker is busy trying to keep track of all the accomplishments for Fall Sports. Along with the Football 5A PIL Championship Title, we were PIL Champions in Volleyball, Women's Soccer and Men's Soccer.

Wilson Cross Country teams had a great season. They both finished 3rd in a very strong PIL this year. Follow this link to a video that, "will change your appreciation for this sport forever," adds Principal Brian Chatard. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SSlIFxndkbg&safe=active>.

Women's Volleyball ended a great season last week with a Play-Off game in Bend. After winning the 5A PIL Championship title, they lost the match to Bend HS but won the respect and admiration of the community. "I think this team surprised a lot of people," adds Coach Jenna Meligan. "We knew going in that no one expected much of us and we wanted to prove people wrong. I think we did that. Four of my starters were sophomores making their first varsity appearance, and we still managed to be league champions. If this was a so-called rebuilding year then all I can say is watch out."

Women's Soccer Coach, Michele Potestio is proud of her young team and, "the tenacity and leadership of this year's Seniors. They were determined to go undefeated and win the 5A PIL Championship." Click here for the names of Team Players and Coaches:

<http://www.pps.k12.or.us/schools/wilson/files/school-wilson/WomensSoccer.jpg>. The team has a State Play-Off game at Sherwood on Tuesday, Nov 6 at 4:30pm.

Men's Soccer finishes the regular season as the 5A PIL Champions. Coach John Madding says that this has been an interesting year. They started the year with significant player injuries and "We are still missing a talented player due to a concussion," adds John. "Once we entered PIL play we have really found our game. We have a bunch of seniors that are providing great leadership. We also have some young players that have stepped up and added a spark to how we play. We are feeling good about the momentum we have going into the playoffs." Click here for the names of Team Players and Coaches: <http://www.pps.k12.or.us/schools/wilson/files/school-wilson/MensSoccer.jpg>.

The team has a State Play-Off game at Mountain View on Tuesday, Nov 6 at 2:00pm.

Wilson Football Coach, Ken Duilio says, "We are excited about winning the 5A P.I.L. League Title" Now we enter the playoffs. "We are going to keep pluggin away, keeping our fingers crossed, and see how far we can take this." Football will host a State Play-Off game against Crescent Valley HS on Friday, Nov 9 at 7:00pm, location TBD.

SPEECH AND DEBATE SUCCESS CONTINUES

Wilson Speech and Debate had big success at two October tournaments. At Willamette University on October 19-20, the Parliamentary Debate team of Chris Meabe and Libby Morgan-Steiner were semifinalists, going undefeated in preliminary rounds. Chris also was a finalist in Poetry Interpretation and Impromptu and placed 7th in debate speaker points. Edward Szczepanski placed 6th in Novice Debate speaker points and was a finalist in Novice Impromptu.
