WILSON VOLUNTEERS HELP WITH PPS PTA CLOTHING CLOSET

Wilson's volunteer day for the PPS PTA clothing closet was Valentine's Day, Feb. 14th. The closet, located at Marshall campus, gives away free clothes to many needy students all around the Portland area. Generous donations of clothes come in from our schools all over the area.

Volunteers then sort, bag, transfer, un-pack, and hang these clothes. On our day, we go and sort clothes and put them on the many racks but we also help the needy students shop for the items they need to attend school. This is a heartwarming job because each student gets to pick out so many clothes. Enough to fill a large garbage bag and take them home! The smiles we see are sometimes "ear to ear". This was a wonderful way to spend Valentine's day, sharing so much with kids who may have so little. A special thank you to the Wilson volunteers to helped run the Clothing closet on this particular day Bev Masters, Susan Crabtree, Tracey Harper, Mary Scriven, Phil Almgren and Heather Triplett. Submitted by Phil Almgren

GRATITUDE FOR GUIDANCE PROVIDED BY A GREAT SCHOOL

Thomas Michel entered Wilson in the class of 1973, but graduated in 1972. He graduated early because his family was moving to New England and he didn't want to spend his senior year in a new high school. While at Wilson he played soccer and the piano.

After Wilson, Thomas went to Harvard College along with his Wilson classmate David Bledsoe '73 (now an attorney in Portland). Graduating from Harvard in 1977, Thomas matriculated in the Duke University MD-PhD program. He completed his studies at Duke in 1984 and returned to Harvard for clinical training in internal medicine and cardiology at Brigham and Women's Hospital and Harvard Medical School. Thomas joined the Harvard faculty and rose through the ranks to his current post of Professor of Medicine and Biochemistry. Along the way, he served in a variety of academic roles, including Dean for Education at Harvard Medical School. His research area is in the study of cardiovascular signal transduction, trying to figure out how cells talk to one another in blood vessels and in the heart. He has over 150 publications, and you can check out his website at: <http://michel-lab.bwh.harvard.edu/>.

"I really miss Oregon," adds Thomas. "I remember my formative years in Portland and at Wilson High with great fondness. But since my parents moved away from Portland I only have rare opportunities to visit. I have brought my family to visit Portland, and they love the city and the state as I do." Thomas has vivid memories of his teachers at Wilson. "My Junior year English teacher, Francis Murray, had a particularly strong influence on my writing and on my approach to literature. Mr. Murray was also my home room teacher, so I saw a lot of him from the first morning I arrived at Wilson. Mr. Grant was my chemistry teacher, and his rigorous approach to chemistry had a lasting impact on my studies." When asked about words of wisdom for the current Wilson students, Thomas reflects, "as you learn, seek to understand how we know what we know. Knowledge comes from curiosity and persistence and insight, and what we view as facts are not to be taken for granted. He also believes you should question dogma and shun orthodoxy and be jealous of your time. "Whatever time you spend doing one thing means you can't do something else. Do what you love, and love what you do, cherish family and friends, and do not assume that either will be around forever- nor will you." If you would like to strike up a conversation with Thomas, you can reach him at: thomas_michel@harvard.edu.

Travel around the world without ever leaving your own home, host a Rotary Youth Exchange student. Rotary District 5100 and the Rotary Club of Portland is seeing an increase in the number of high school students hoping to be American ambassadors to foreign countries through Rotary Youth Exchange. WOMEN'S TENNIS MEETING, FEBRUARY 21 at lunch in Rm. 101.

WILSON PTA PARENT EDUCATION COMMITTEE PRESENTS on FEBRUARY 21

Our School is for Everyone: Taking Action to Stop Bullying!

Thursday, February 21 6:00 – 8:00 pm Wilson HS Cafeteria

In this bimonthly Parent Education meeting, Learning Specialist Rich Matkins will be joined by a panel of concerned Wilson students to address the experience of bullying from all perspectives, what the warning signs are, and what can be done to prevent bullying and foster a safe and engaging learning community. Rich Matkins, MEd, has been a Learning Specialist/Speech Language Pathologist for 33 years, most recently with the Beaverton School District. Bullying and harassment, and its sometimes devastating effects, likely affect the Wilson community of students, parents, teachers, and administrators. This subject has become a national concern in our schools, as epitomized by the recent revealing documentary on peer-to-peer harassment, "Bully."

Participants will learn how to recognize bullying, practical intervention techniques teens can use to be more than a bystander, and what resources are available at Wilson, the district and community to provide further assistance. Light refreshments will be served at 6PM. Presentation begins promptly at 6:30. The Parent Education Committee plans and hosts three high-quality parent education events a year with the following goals:

- to provide an engaging entry point into the Wilson community, where parents can meet each other in a relaxed environment and become better-informed about issues and developments at the school.
- to give Wilson parents the encouragement, resources, and skills to address the critical issues, behavioral patterns and cultural influences of high school, and thereby help parents in raising healthy teens.
