MAY WE TAKE YOUR COAT ...

Students from the Wilson Key Club had a very successful time hosting the coat check for the Hillsdale Main Street's Wine About Winter food and wine festival on February 10th. It was a wonderful fundraising opportunity for them and a great way to raise the Wilson Key Club's profile in our community. Emily Wilken, Americorps Vista, Volunteer Coordinator for Wine About Winter said, "The students took ownership of the project by creating their own schedule, recruiting volunteers, and providing all of the supplies needed for a successful Coat Check. The participation of the Wilson High School Key Club was the perfect addition to our event. The inclusion of our local students providing the Coat Check added a great element of the entire community pitching in to accomplish one common goal: showcasing Hillsdale's energy and lively interaction among friends and neighbors. Thank you Wilson Key Club!" Thanks to Wilson Key Club Advisor, Linda Campillo and to the following Wilson students:

WILSON JUNIOR BASEBALL

Wilson Junior Baseball (JBO) is registering now and also looking for sponsors and/or donations for the 2013 spring season. Wilson JBO focuses primarily on serving the 13-14 year old age group at the Senior JBO level as they prepare for high school level ball. If you own a local business, please consider becoming a Wilson JBO sponsor (<http://www.wilsonjbo.com/>). You can sponsor and support youth baseball while advertising your business to the local community. For those of you who are Wilson Alumni (<http://www.wilsonalumni.com/>), this is an excellent way to make a donation and show your support of the future of the Wilson Baseball Program. Sponsorship support helps maintain fields, pay for umpires, permits, equipment and coaches. Your sponsorship or donation also helps provide scholarships for players who otherwise would not be able to afford registration fees. Click here for the flyer with all the details:

ROTARY YOUTH EXCHANGE

Travel around the world without ever leaving your own home, host a Rotary Youth Exchange student. Rotary District 5100 and the Rotary Club of Portland is seeing an increase in the number of high school students hoping to be American ambassadors to foreign countries through Rotary Youth Exchange. Even as the number of Outbound hopefuls increases, Rotary is experiencing a decrease in the number of host families. Outbound students cannot be sent without an equal number of host families. Both are tremendously rewarding experiences. Rotary is searching for host families within the Wilson HS boundaries to host a student during the 2013-14 school year. If your family is interested, contact Delanie Delimont, 503-246-5009 (home), delanie@lifturbanportland.org).

HOSPITALITY HELP NEEDED

Wilson parents!! We are your PTA Hospitality chairs and we need your help! If anyone is interested in helping donate food or paper products for the Hospitality events at Wilson, please send your email to: JeanH@Grand-Benedicts.com or ChristiC@alpenrose.com. We look forward to hearing from you! Jean Hinkley and Christi Cadonau.

YOU'LL LAUGH 'TIL YOU CRY! FEBRUARY 25 AND FEBRUARY 26 @ 7PM

Betsy Kauffman and Joanie Quinn are local comedians who also happen to be Wilson parents. They are performing their stand up, "Spilt Milk! You'll laugh 'til you cry!" this month at O'Connors in Multnomah Village on two nights – Monday, Feb 25 and Tuesday, Feb 26. This month they are featuring Bri Pruett & Marcia Belsky (fresh from Curious Comedy's all woman Comedy Festival), comedy writer Debby Dodds, and the hilarious Tricia Leishman. Also, making his debut, is newcomer Sam Sheppard. Spilt Milk Comedy Showcase sold out the last few months, so they've added a night, and have made tickets ($5 cover + small fee) available online at: www.brownpapertickets.com (search "Spilt Milk Comedy"). They are bringing comedy to Multnomah Village every month, working with Steve Arel (1967 Wilson grad and owner of O'Connors) to feature local comics, some just starting out, others with more experience, in a safe, comfortable room, with an emphasis on providing a performing space for women. Come and enjoy a low-cost, fun night out right in our neighborhood - laughter really is the best medicine! Doors open at 5:30pm, dinner available, show begins at 7pm, no minors. For more info go to their Facebook page at: <http://www.facebook.com/SpiltMilkinSWPDX> (Spilt Milk - you'll laugh 'til you cry!)

CALLING ALL STUDENTS! POETRY OUT LOUD, FEBRUARY 28

The National Recitation Contest will take place at Wilson on Feb. 28th at 2:30pm. For more information, please ask the Wilson Librarian. Any student may participate by doing the following: (1) select a poem from this list (<http://poetryoutloud.org/poems-and-performance/find-poem>); (2) Memorize the poem; (3) Recite/perform the poem for the judges on February 28th. The winner of the Wilson contest will proceed to the Regional Contest on Saturday, March 9th. The State championship will take place on Saturday, March 16th.

WANTED! DEADLINE MARCH 1

We are looking for 16 positive, confident Wilson High School sophomore, junior, and senior women who want to inspire middle school girls and lead activities for the Jackson Middle School Girls Night Out on April 11, 2013. Phone interviews conducted week of March 4. If selected, community service hours will be certified. Deadline for application is March 1.

WILSON'S UNIFIED BASKETBALL TEAM COMPETES IN SPECIAL OLYMPICS, MARCH 2

Wilson High School's Unified Basketball team will be competing in the Special Olympics Statewide championships in Springfield on Saturday, March 2nd. The games will be held at Thurston Middle School in Springfield, Oregon. Everyone is invited to attend and cheer on our team. We have limited seating for rooters and fans, however, and if you would like to ride the bus, please arrange this with Dominic Le Fave, Rm 141. The bus will leave promptly at 6:30am ON MARCH 2ND. We should be back in Portland before 6pm. Go Trojans!

WILSON RUMMAGE SALE, MARCH 2

Sale will be held Saturday, March 2 from 10am to 4pm at the Burlingame Church (125 SW Miles Street). All proceeds benefit the 2013 Grad Night Party.

9TH ANNUAL ABBY'S CLOSET PROM GOWN GIVEAWAY, MARCH 16-17

The "9th Annual Abby's Closet Prom Gown Giveaway" will be held on March 16-17, 2013 at the Oregon Convention Center. The gowns are given away free to high-school women. Some information about the Giveaway Event: The only requirement is that the students show a high school ID card. As young women arrive, they are given a numbered ticket and told the approximate time they will be able to enter the Salon. As they are waiting in line, raffles are held periodically and the winners are given prizes (ex. gift certificates, small gifts, etc.). Once the young women enter the Salon, there are plenty of adult volunteers to help them find the perfect gown. The donated gowns are grouped in "Salons" by size and color. Last year, there were over 7,000 gowns to choose from. After a gown is selected, the guests are able to select an accessory item (ex. purse, wrap, jewelry) and are given some small personal items that have been donated (ex. perfume and make-up samples).

HIGH SCHOOL TRASH ART CONTEST AND EXHIBITION, MARCH 9

SOLVE and the Pacific Northwest College of Art (PNCA) will host a College Clean Beaches Design Challenge and exhibition of high school Trash Art. The event will take place on March 9th in the Swigert Commons at PNCA at NW 13th and NW Johnson St. in Portland, Oregon. High schools from around Oregon are invited to compete in the art competition/show. Each high school will have a local art contest and submit the 3 best art pieces for the competition and exhibition at the March 9 event. A team of judges will select the top 3 best of show. First place will be offered a $2000 scholarship and two runners up will each be offered a $1000 scholarship to PNCA. Each piece of art must be wholly made from trash. For details and enrollment go to www.solve.org "Get Involved, "PNCA Design Challenge"". This competition is open to all high school aged and college-aged students. We are thrilled to be able to present this opportunity in creative problem solving to Oregon's youth. Get your students, get your trash, and design! John Tortorici, Interim Executive Director SOLVE at: john@solve.org.

SW HOPE FOOD DRIVE

As reported by Rick Seifert in The Hillsdale news, hunger still plagues many as SW HOPE food drive begins anew. After six years, one would hope that there would no longer be need for SW HOPE: Feed the Hungry. Sadly, that's not the case. So the seventh annual food drive will kick off Feb. 10. The campaign brings together 72 faith and other community partners to collect food and funds in support of Neighborhood House's Emergency Food Box Program, the largest food pantry on Portland's west side. This year the campaign has increased its goal to provide more help to the large number of families facing hunger in the fifth year of economic downturn. Neighborhood House currently provides emergency food boxes to 450-500 families (or about 1,500 individuals) each month, up from about 320 before the recession. The demand for food assistance has remained steady this year, despite improvements in the economy. This year's campaign, which runs to March 24, has set a goal of raising 175,000 pounds of food or the cash equivalent. It is more efficient to donate money as every $1 donation allows Neighborhood House to purchase five pounds of food at the Oregon Food Bank. Local faith communities such as St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Congregation Neveh Shalom, Hillsdale Community Church, Muslim Educational Trust and more than 20 others in Southwest Portland, have signed on to address this critical need. SW HOPE once again will place collection barrels at local businesses, community centers, and faith congregations. Food donations can be made at any of the faith locations displaying a SW HOPE banner. Neighborhood House's food pantry is asking donors to prioritize the need for healthful, canned fruits and vegetables. A complete list of community partners and participating congregations can be found at www.swhope.org. Donations, both food and monetary, can be made at Neighborhood House, located at 7780 SW Capitol Hwy. or online at www.swhope.org.
