A MAX TRAIN ON CAPITOL HIGHWAY?

According to Rick Seifert, Hillsdale News (<http://www.hillsdalenews.org/>), another strand has been added to the tangle of mass transit options under consideration for the Southwest Transit Corridor. In 12 or so years one of the options could link Downtown Portland, Hillsdale, Tigard and Tualatin using MAX trains or elongated buses on dedicated lanes. Some options include tunnels including two that would put a MAX tunnel under the Hillsdale Town Center. The new strand would put MAX or "Bus Rapid Transit" (BRT) on, not under, Capitol Highway. The routing would come up from Barbur Boulevard, wind its way through the Town Center on Capitol Highway before finding its way down Bertha Boulevard and back to Barbur. Other options for Hillsdale call for circumventing the Town Center altogether and putting MAX trains or the articulated BRT buses on dedicated lanes on Barbur. A Southwest Transit Corridor Steering Committee is seeking comment from all affected communities. The community will have several opportunities to hear Metro and TriMet's latest thinking. The next presentation and hearing will be Wednesday, March 12, from 6pm to 8pm at the Wilson High School cafeteria. For more on the Southwest Corridor Transit Plan go here: <http://www.oregonmetro.gov/index.cfm/go/by.web/id/35309>.

SW HOPE FOOD DRIVE SEEKS COMMUNITY DONATIONS (posted by Hillsdale News)

The eighth annual SW HOPE: Feed the Hungry campaign will begin Sunday, March 2, with the support of more than 75 faith, business and other community partners. The campaign, which ends April 17, supports Neighborhood House's Emergency Food Box Program. The need for the food is all the greater because of recent cuts in the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits. The cuts affect more than 819,000 Oregonians. The food drive includes cash donations for food as well. Organizers say that cash is the most efficient way to support the drive. For every $1 donated, Neighborhood House can purchase approximately four pounds food from the Oregon Food Bank. This year's goal is 175,000 pounds of food or the cash equivalent. Local faith communities such as St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, St Barnabus Episcopal Church, Hillsdale Community Church, Mission Portland, Muslim Educational Trust and more than 20 others have already signed up to help collect funds and food. Local businesses including Food Front, Indigo Traders, Thinker Toys, New Seasons, Umpqua Bank and many others are providing food collection boxes or coin canisters. A complete list of donation sites is at www.swhope.org. Also listed on the site are "dine-to-donate" restaurants, including Salvador Molly's, the Old Spaghetti Factory, Otto and Anita's Schnitzel House, and Fat City Café in Multnomah Village. The Emergency Food Box Program continues to be the largest food assistance program on Portland's west side, providing food boxes for close to 500 low-income SW Portland neighbors-including families with children and seniors (approximately 1500 individuals) each month. For more information about the SW HOPE contact Ann Rogers-Williams, Neighborhood House Development Coordinator, at 503-246-1663 x2118 or awilliams@nhweb.org or go to www.nhpdx.org.
