AP Pre-Administration for Sophomores and Juniors, during Tutor Time in the Cafeteria

Revised Wilson Affinity Group Community Dinner, Room 145, 5:30pm

Hey, Wilson Asian Pacific Islander Club, Black Student Union, Students of Color in Action, Unidos Club and Muslim Student Alliance members! On Thursday, April 18, let's bring our families together to meet and build community! This event is also open to students and families who want to show support and fellowship for Wilson cultural affinity clubs—all are welcome. Pizza provided; bring something to share!

Following the Family Gathering, please stay for an event put on by the Oregon Humanities Conversation Project: Listening to Young People, Wilson Library, 7-8:30pm. Open to students, staff and community members.

New Listening to Young People, An Oregon Humanities Conversation Project, Wilson Library, 7:00-8:30pm

What does it look like when adults really listen to young people? Cultural beliefs about young people perpetuate myths that cause harm, especially when combined with laws that control their physical and emotional autonomy and limit their ability to participate in public life. Young people experiencing marginalization for any reason—race, gender, sexuality, ability—also have the added layer of not being taken seriously because of their age. And yet the history of social justice movements in the United States is deeply connected to young people's agency, autonomy, and power. Join facilitator Emily Squires and a co-facilitator from the youth community for a conversation that asks folks to explore their own beliefs about what it means to be young and to reflect on their individual relationship to power as it relates to age.

Open to students, staff and community members. Sponsored by Wilson HS and the Southwest Neighborhoods Inc Equity & Inclusion Committee. Learn more at oregonhumanities.org/programs/conversation-project/catalog/listening-to-young-people/.

Senior Slideshow Update

From Tiffany Jeffords: "All is not lost! I am extending the deadline to get your senior slide show pictures in. There has been a lot of confusion around these pictures so let me explain. Please send in 3-4 pictures of your senior. They can be related to: baby, toddler, Halloween, family, sports, whatever you choose! They don't have to be your kids actual senior photo although you are welcome to add it. And I will allow one or two group photos of your choosing from sports, elementary school, middle school, field trips, etc. Please try to send me all of your pictures in one email. This is a lot to sort through and I don't want anyone mad at me in the end, so please try to keep them together. New deadline is April 30th. I'm trying my best to keep up with the emails but I am responding to everyone, so bear with me if you don't get a response right away. Thank you!! Tiffany Jeffords, wilsonoetrojans2019@gmail.com”
