NEWS

New Wilson Teacher Recognized as Outstanding Literacy Leader

Each year, the Portland Reading Council honors individuals who have demonstrated an outstanding commitment to literacy. Wilson teacher Jamie Suehiro (Language Arts) is a winner of this year's Celebrate Literacy Award! Ms. Suehiro was chosen because of her invaluable contributions to individual student achievement in Language Arts, to growing a positive professional culture here at Wilson, and to our historically underserved communities.

March Teachers of the Month

Derek MacDicken, Science: What students say: Mr. MacDicken is a teacher who expects his students to work hard and gives us the opportunity to always do so. An example of this are the projects he assigns us in AP Environment. He is a very captivating speaker when it comes to environmental topics and his class really helped me decide what I want to go to college for: civil engineering, emphasis on energy and environment. Mr. MacDicken challenges us to see the world through different lenses and creates an inclusive classroom where all of his students feel welcome. He challenges us to think creatively, reflectively, and has high expectations.

Jamie Suehiro, Language Arts: What students say: Ms. Suehiro consistently gets to know her students outside of the classroom. She is intrigued to know about how each sport and student athlete is doing. She provides a great environment in the classroom and takes time out of her busy day to get to know each student individually. Ms. Suehiro is always very kind and caring of not only what you do in class but what you do outside of class. She's always asking how your track race, or soccer game went. Ms. Suehiro is such an awesome teacher. She pushes us to do our best work in a hard AP course, but makes sure it is fun at the same time. She also provided lots of extra support, including granola bars, when students are in need of that extra boost. Her classrooms are engaging, thought-provoking, and she makes us all feel welcome!

Model United Nations 2019

Wilson MUN is just back from their annual event in Eugene where they represented Ireland, The Holy See, and Thailand. The team made a Big Five bid and won China (sharing with another school) for next year.

Seven Wilson members won a speaker's award in their committee: Aiden Brahn-Perrot, Zoe Carver, Maggie Downey, Ashley Eddy, Max Finke, Chester Mantel, and Nathaniel Nelson, who also won the talent show for his multiple recorder performance.

The next MUN meeting will be Wednesday, April 24, to elect next year's leaders. A big thank you to this year's leaders: Gabe Colasurdo, Julia Johnston, and William Sweek.

Speech and Debate Goes to State!

The Wilson Speech and Debate Team had great success at the recent state qualifier tournament. Qualifying for state:
