NEWS

Chess Club goes to the State Championship in Seaside!

Six members of the Wilson Chess Team travelled to Seaside April 14-15 to compete in the 13th Annual Oregon Scholastic Chess Federation State Championship. There were 338 contenders from all over Oregon, and all six Wilson players qualified to play in the Platinum Elite section, the top high school section—what a fantastic achievement!

River Bednark, 12th grade

Jake Winkler, 11th grade

Josh Bromley, 10th grade

Sinan Grehan, 10th grade

Chris Ng, 10th grade

Michael Schuff, 9th grade

Congratulations to Chris Ng, who placed 9th in the state among high school contenders and brought home an Honorable Mention trophy. Jake Winkler placed 16th bringing home a plus score medal for winning half his games. River Bednark was close behind, placing 18th, followed by Sinan Grehan in 23rd place, Josh Bromely in 25th place and Michael Schuff in 28th place. Congratulations to all these Elite chess players!

Comcast Leaders and Achievers Scholarship Winner

Congratulations to Julia Taylor!

Wilson Student-Athletes of the Week

Thomas Berg: Thomas is an incredible leader. He has founded the Students of Color in Action Association (SOCAA) Club this year and has been instrumental in bringing racial equity to the forefront of conversations among his peers. In class, he is a standout student, engaging with learning, advocating for himself and his peers, and treating everyone with respect and dignity. Most importantly, Thomas is not just a student-athlete his a social justice advocate too.

Katie Reunert: Katie Reunert is one of the hardest working and also one of the kindest students. She is the epitome of a student/athlete/person who is adept at finding the proper balance between pursuing her education, playing sports, and being a good friend and family member.

Wilson Speakers Qualify for National Tournament

A record eight members of the Wilson Speech and Debate Team have qualified for the National Speech and Debate Association's National Tournament. They placed in their events at the North Oregon qualifying tournaments, held March 22-24 and April 14. Wilson placed 2nd among teams at the March event and won the team award on April 14. Congratulations to our qualifiers: Wolf Morgan-Steiner (Dramatic Interpretation), Andrew Foran (Humorous Interpretation), Fletcher Calcagno (Original Oratory), Moses Felberg (International Extemporaneous), Ari Lohr, Tosca Ruotolo, Elijah Moon (all in Congressional Debate), and Bryce Snyder (Worlds Debate). They will compete at the National Tournament June 17-22 in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

State qualifiers will compete April 21-22 at the OSAA State Tournament at Western Oregon University in Monmouth: Wolf Morgan-Steiner, Tosca Ruotolo (both in After Dinner Speaking), Fletcher Calcagno (Original Oratory and Radio Commentary), Moses Felberg (Impromptu), Andrew Foran (Poetry Reading), Diego Millan (Dramatic Interpretation) Bryce Snyder (partnered with Diego Millan in Dual Interpretation and with Moses Felberg in Public Forum Debate) and Ari Lohr (Student Congress).

There are many ways to enjoy competing in speech and debate—interpretation events (like acting), original speeches to persuade, inform and entertain, and traditional academic debate. Drop by room 213 after school Wednesdays or Thursdays through spring and we'll show you how the Speech and Debate Team can help you with your interests (and college admissions). The team is already starting to think about and prepare for the 2018-19 season. Come join us!

Wilson Poetry Slam Winners

The winners and alternate will be treated to a super -fancy evening at the Schnitz sponsored by Wieden+Kennedy and Literary Arts, including dinner and orchestra tickets to Verslandia, our citywide youth poetry slam. The winners will also compete at Verslandia and share their poetry from the stage of the Schnitz.

1st place: Ari Lohr

2nd place: Mia Sedory

Alternate: Muhammad Taylor

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hey, Parents of Graduating Seniors!

Let the neighborhood know and brag a little with a "A Graduate Lives Here!" yard sign! It's a fundraiser for Grad Night, cost is $20, available in the office, at home baseball games, or from Julie Jacobsen (juliejacobsen5678@gmail.com) or Tony Hansen (tony@projectconniption.com). Take a look at the sign here: www.pps.net/domain/792

AP Students: Mark your Calendars!

Some of our AP courses will be offering mock AP exams in March or April. This is a free opportunity to take a true AP exam (past-year exams are used) presented in the same format as the actual exam. Students enrolled in AP courses who are planning to take the exam are strongly encouraged to attend the mock exam.

Mock exams will be given on a weekend either in the morning or afternoon (exact times TBA) and will be scored by Wilson teachers. AP teachers need to know who will be attending so let them know right away if you plan to attend the mock exam session. For details on dates and what mock exams are offered, go to www.pps.net/domain/761#mock_AP.

Chaperones Needed for Prom on May 19

Leadership is in need of chaperones for this year's prom at the World Trade Center from 7-10 on May 19, 2018. If you are interested in getting involved, please contact our activities director Morgan McFadden (mmcfadden@pps.net) for more details. Volunteers will need to fill out the required background check at www.pps.net/Page/149. Thank you for your continued dedication to Wilson, and we hope to see you there!

Join us for our Spring Clean-Up Day, Saturday, April 28th 9am-2pm

Bring your gardening gloves, garden tools, and help us show a little love for our school and grounds. Meet our team on the front patio of the school at 9am to get an assignment for a section of the school to work on.

Wilson Prom Flower Fundraiser

Hooray for Spring! It's the celebratory season that finally brings prom plans and glad grads. So easy to make the best of both with Wilson's Prom Flower Fundraiser. Wilson High School Dragon Boats Has Room for More Paddlers!

It's an exciting team sport that anyone can do. Join the fun on the waterfront in front of RiverPlace Hotel at the Marina downtown on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4:30pm and Saturdays at 8:30am. If you have questions, ask student leaders Kate Kelly (katekelly9399@gmail.com) Christine Castles (castles.christine@yahoo.com), or Scott Bremmer (bremmerscottw@gmail.com), or email coach/advisor Rob Bremmer (rob.bremmer@gmail.com).

Senior Slideshow Now Under Construction

Seniors and Parents of Seniors: The time has come to gather photos of seniors and their friends over the years and send them in for the Senior Slideshow (to be shown at the Senior Awards Assembly on June 1 and at the Grad Night Party). Submission guidelines:

1. Send photos electronically to Valeurie Friedman at wilsonhs@pps.net.
2. Each photo's filename (not just the subject line of the email) must contain the student's name and a unique number (for example, Jessica Smith photo 1, Jessica Smith photo 2, etc.).
3. Photos may be of the student at any age, but include at least one recent photo.
4. Group photos with other Wilson students are encouraged, but if submitting multiple photos we would like at least three to be individual shots.
5. Limit five photos per student.
6. Deadline for slideshow submissions is May 1.

From the Wilson Library

Wilson's Poetry Slam winner will compete at Verslandia, the citywide youth Poetry Slam, on April 26 at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall. Don't miss this opportunity to share your poetry at the Schnitz!

Free student tickets to Verslandia are available on a first-come, first-served basis. To reserve your ticket, submit a completed Verselandia permission slip (available in the library) to the library. Support the winner of our Wilson Slam and enjoy a phenomenal night of poetry. Additional student tickets are available for $10 from Literary Arts. Student tickets always sell out. Don't wait!

Contact Cassie Lanzas (clanzas@pps.net) in the library or go to the library homepage at www.pps.net/domain/4251 for more information on the Wilson Slam, Verselandia, or free student tickets.

Desserts for Drama

Are you well known for making decadent desserts or have a favorite bakery you frequent? Do your kids love to bake? Either way, you can help make this year's auction a sweet success by contributing to the SouthWest Stageworks Desserts for Drama at the Wilson Auction on April 21. Desserts will be auctioned off to the highest bidder and the proceeds will go to the Wilson Theater Department.

Make or buy from your favorite bakery a dessert that serves 12 people (include a tag with ingredient info). Deliver the dessert to the auction venue by 4pm on the 21st, or contact Phyllis Snyder (503-317-8836 or phyllis@ksnyder.com) for other arrangements. If you would like to help with Dessert for Drama or have questions, contact Phyllis.

Scholarship for Juniors

Haggerty Scholars Application - Due 4/27/2018

More info here.

Lincoln HS Middle East Study Abroad Opportunity

Lincoln's World Language instructors, Saneun McHaley Foley and Ruqayya Jarad, invite Wilson students to an informational meeting for their summer service/learning trip to Jordan. If you're interested in living in Jordan for three weeks in June, seeing the Middle East, and learning to read Arabic, attend one of their meetings on Wednesday, April 27, at 7:00pm, or Thursday, May 3, at 6:00pm, Lincoln HS Rm 237. Contact sfoley@pps.net if you want info but can't make a meeting. More info here and here.

Become a Rotary Exchange Student to another Country

The Rotary Club of Portland is now accepting applications from freshman or sophomore students to become outbound exchange students. Rotary exchanges with 22 countries throughout Europe and Asia and offers both full-year and summer-only programs. Email David Noall at dnoall45@gmail.com for more information.

Share your America, Host an Exchange Student

Members of the Wilson community are invited to become a host family for US State Department Scholarship recipients. Students come from many countries— Turkey, India, Thailand, Brazil, Spain, and others. Some of the students coming to Wilson are: Ghina from Indonesia, who loves the arts, drawing, and making movies of the food of her country. She likes dance, both traditional and modern Kpop, and speaks Indonesian, Arabic, and Korean. Moez from Tunisia speaks French and Arabic. He wants to study astrophysics and likes debate and solving Rubiks cubes (blindfolded and with one hand). He helps with chores around his house and gardening.

Hosts can be a family, a single parent or retirees and a place to sleep and study and share meals and activities with students. You can host a fall student for the year or semester. Learn about a new culture while sharing our beautiful region. For more information, contact Mimi Sanders, PAX Program of Academic Exchange, 503-293-6195; mimisandersart@hotmail.com.

Middle School Track & Field Spring Clinics

April 14 and May 5, 2018, 10am-noon. Open to all middle school students. The camp cost is $25.00 for one day or $40.00 for both. All campers will receive a Wilson Track & Field T-shirt. Click here to find the registration form.

Scrip

Scrip is an easy way to support the PTA that costs you nothing extra! This program works with local and national vendors, including most of your favorite grocers, restaurants and retailers. Leave your order with the Wilson Bookkeeper on Monday, pick up your scrip on Friday afternoon. Or place your order by phone, postal mail, or e-mail! Contact Martha Schulte (schulte@easystreet.net; 503-244-5072) for more information or to place an order. Download order forms here.

COMMUNITY

“Misinformation, Fake News and Political Propaganda”, Hillsdale Library, Saturday, April 28, 11:00am-12:30pm

Messages from politicians, news sources and other media are all around us every day. This workshop uses real world examples of political ads, news headlines, graphs and charts, the effect of word choice in messaging, statistical data and other types of information so you can learn to distinguish truth from fiction and become your own fact-checker.

CONNECTIONS

The Wilson Daily Bulletin is an electronic newsletter full of useful information and interesting news emailed to Wilson students, parents, staff, and community members. The Bulletin is published every day. The Monday Edition has the widest distribution and includes more general announcements; Thursday-Friday the focus is on events more specific to the school and what goes on in the building during school hours. Archives can be found online at the Wilson website. If you would like to be added (specify whether you would like to be on the daily list or just the Monday list) or removed from the distribution list, send your email address to Valeurie Friedman at vfriedman@pps.net. Have good news to share about Wilson students or alumni? Send the details to Valeurie Friedman at vfriedman@pps.net.
