NEWS

Wilson Model United Nations

The Model United Nations Conference was held April 13-16 by OHS-IRL at University of Oregon. Wilson High School's delegation of 36 students represented France, Gabon, and Gambia. Three students won a speaker award: Zoe Bennett, Carter Crail, and Patrick Powers. Several others were nominated in their committees. The group made a successful bid for a Big Five country, so next year we will represent Russian Federation. Our last meeting of the year will be on April 26, when those interested in being next year's leaders will talk about what they can offer, followed by an election.

Asian Reporter Profiles Wilson Student

Check out the article on Wilson's Rose Court Princess Maggie Beutler here.

Athletes of the Week, April 17-24

Maddie Molloy and Allie Rosenfield, Girls Tennis: Allie and Maddie, competing at #1 doubles for Wilson, played an impressive match at Roosevelt and won in straight sets.

Caden Samkutty, Boys Tennis: Caden was undefeated last week without giving up a set. All while maintaining a 3.9 gpa.

Wilson of Hall of Fame Gets Update

Wilson's "refresh" of our sports Hall of Fame has been completed. All 46 Hall-of-Famers are now on the wall with new plaques. Many thanks to Wilson parent and alumnus Dan Rubin for creating the plaques and to Coach Steve Walmer for help on installation. Also, thanks to Coach Jeremy Shetler for chairing the committee considering future inductees to the Wilson Hall of Fame.

Congratulations to the Winners of Wilson's 7th Annual Poetry Slam:

1st Place: Elisa Mickelson, 9th grade

2nd Place: Sincere Bartlett, 11th grade

3rd Place: Rivkah Zigman, 9th grade

The top two winners will proceed to Verselandia at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall on April 27 at 7pm. We will have 25 tickets to give to students and parents—students, go to the library to reserve your tickets.

Wilson Students Explore Bright Future Starting at PCC!

Interested in mechanical engineering? Pursuing a drama career? Love working on cars? Seeking a business degree? Nearly 40 Wilson students recently visited PCC Sylvania to explore various degree and transfer programs available, and received personal tours of PCC's terrific learning environments. Many students were enthused by PCC's small classes, engaged professors, and best-in-class equipment and tools, making PCC a smart college option and career development choice for many Wilson students. If you're interested in attending PCC and aren't sure where to start, come to the college center in 220 and see Kelly Milford and we'll get you going!

Wilson's Oregon Battle of the Books Team Places Third at State Championships

The Wilson team worked hard reading more than a million pages to prepare for the competition. The competition was tough, and they came really close to making it into the very final round. Please congratulate our team of seniors, many of whom have been together since 4th grade in OBOB competitions: Amelia Jamond, Elyse Castles, Elle Bremmer, and Samantha Lesch.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

New: STEM Opportunity, April 25-27

Act fast, this free program has a few open seats left! The SEMI Foundation invites applications to SEMI High Tech U, a STEM career exploration program for high school students that has been delivered worldwide over 200 times. Day one and two of the program will take place at Lam Research in Tualatin, and day two will be held at Portland Community College's Sylvania Campus. Students will learn the fundamentals of electronics, statistics, solar technology, semiconductor manufacturing, microchip logic and more as well as participate in mock job interviews. There is no cost to attend. Apply online at htu.semi.org.

New: Seniors, You are Invited...

Your "next big thing" is fast approaching and we want to celebrate it! Join your fellow Seniors on Friday, April 28 during tutor time in the auditorium foyer to celebrate where you're going and what you're doing next year after graduation. Show your pride in your future plans by wearing your college, trade wear, gap year garb, military t-shirt or anything else that represents your path!

Summer Opportunities

Cute Cotton Fabric Needed for Boxer Bingo for Grad Night!

Grad night is seeking cotton or flannel fabric pieces (1/2 yard or larger) for a grad night project. If you've got scraps you are willing to part with, please contact Dannie McLaughlin (danni.mclaughlin@gmail.com) or drop at the Wilson High School office labeled "Boxer Bingo." If you are interested in sewing boxers, either in a group-sew night, or by taking home supplies and making at home, please email Danni for details. We need sewers, cutters, and runners and it's a lot of fun and the pattern is very simple. Thanks for continuing this fun Wilson tradition.

Grad Night Flower Sale, Orders Due April 28

Spring is in the air! Are you looking for a Mother's Day gift? Or maybe a teachers gift? Do you need to add some color to your yard? Look no further! Grad Night is doing one last FUNdraiser before the year comes to a close. Please turn orders in to the Grad Night Lockbox in the main office by April 28th. If you have any questions, email Tiffany Jeffords (jeffords@ohsu.edu). Orders will be delivered on Saturday, May 13 (time TBD). Download the order form: <http://www.pps.net/cms/>

Seniors

Clear Fees Now

This is a reminder that your fees need to be paid before you can purchase prom tickets, receive graduation tickets, and receive your diploma. Amounts due can include fees for transcripts sent electronically or mailed to colleges. Fees can be paid to Ana Curtis, the bookkeeper in room 149 and transcript fees can be paid to Ana Curtis or Sharon Dailey, the counseling secretary. Check with Ana if you're not sure if you owe fees.

12th-Grade Checklist for April

1. Look for decision letters from colleges. They're coming this month! Be sure to share your acceptances with counselors, parents, and friends!
2. Compare financial aid award letters. Financial aid award package letters usually arrive shortly after acceptances. Go over these carefully and ask an adult if you have questions.
3. Sign up for and attend Preview Days. Whether you're deciding between two colleges, or just want to get more familiar with your first choice, make sure you sign up for prospective student weekends/days.
4. Decide where to attend college. Decision time! Think carefully and critically about the pros and cons for each school—consider size, academics, cost, extracurricular options and more. Many colleges require a confirmation and initial deposit on May 1st.

12th-Grade Checklist for Next Month: Plan a budget and start making lists of what you'll need!

FAFSA Challenge: Seniors, Win $75 Shopping Spree

The Wilson College Center wants to give Seniors money for applying for money! Filing the FAFSA is the gateway to financial aid for college, do it today!

Go to FAFSA.ed.gov to complete your FAFSA form—get financial aid for college and be automatically entered in a drawing to win a $75 Amazon shopping spree. One winner every two weeks will be drawn from the list of students who have filled out a FAFSA application.

Senior Slide Show Now Under Construction

Attention Senior Parents!! The Grad Night Committee is working to put together a slide show of the senior class to be played at Grad Night. Please send photos of your senior. The pictures can be of any stage in your child's life and can include friends if you wish. Send up to five photos to Jenn Van Vleet (goodgirlcef@yahoo.com). If you don't have a way to scan photos, email Jenn to make other arrangements. Thank you for helping to make grad night a super success!

Career Center News

Law Day Conference, May 2, 8:30am-1:30pm, Portland State University
(Application Deadline: April 22)

Are you interested in a career in law? Then the Law Day Conference is for you! Since 1981, more than 20,000 Oregon and SW Washington high school students have attended the Law Day Conference featuring exciting workshops that explore our legal system. Workshops are interesting, topical, and so current that many are being argued in the courts today. When students leave the conference at the end of Law Day, they will be more informed citizens, know more about where to go for help, and develop new interest and appreciation for being an active citizen.

Registration fee of $10 includes lunch and materials. Register at <http://www.classroomlaw.org/programs/law-day/>. For more information please stop by room 220.

Girls: Oregon, Action, Leadership, Service Summit; Portland State University Smith Memorial Ballroom, April 26

The Center for Women's Leadership and the Summit's Teen Council are inviting girls from Wilson to work with their teen council for the 2017 GOALS Summit. Develop leadership skills, meet with other teen girls from around the city, hear from women leaders, attend workshops. For more information and to register visit www.oregongirlslead.com.

Minds Matter, An Opportunity for 9th-Graders; Apply by May 5

If you are a 9th-grader with at least a 3.2 GPA, come from a household with an annual family income below $36,000 and/or qualify for Free/Reduced lunch, are committed to pursuing a college education, demonstrate strong academic potential, motivation, maturity, and responsibility, you might want to learn more about Minds Matter. Minds Matter is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to helping low-income, high achieving high school students realize their dreams of attending college. Starting their sophomore year, Minds Matter students join mentors and tutors every Saturday during the school year at Self Enhancement, Inc., and receive the reward of fully-paid summer enrichment programs at colleges throughout the U.S. As rising seniors, they also have the chance to compete for an overseas program. Since their 2006 inception, Minds Matter Portland has celebrated 100% of seniors receiving admission to a 4-year college of their choice, often with substantial financial aid support. Information is available at <http://mindsmatterportland.org/students/how-to-apply/>. Come to an informational meeting on Friday April 14th, during lunch in the college center (room 220).
