NEWS

November Teachers of the Month

The Wilson Athletic Leadership Council is pleased to announce the November Teachers of the Month, Sarah LeMier (Marketing) and Joe Minato (Science). Here's what students have to say about these two outstanding teachers:

Sarah LeMier creates an inclusive and caring environment in her classroom where all of her students are heard and respected. She has a unique ability to connect with her students and each of her classes has an important purpose. Her Ethnic Studies class is a prime example of that where she integrates important concepts and themes that have direct relevance to our daily lives. She is constantly inspiring her students to be their very best and challenging them to think outside the box. Rock on LeMier!

Mr. Minato's classroom is structured, inclusive, and challenges us to think in a broader perspective. He has a unique ability to connect the curriculum to our lives and the challenges we face. Mr. Minato is passionate about his classes and it comes across when he teaching. He is willing to go the extra mile with each and every one of his students which demonstrates his level of character and how much he cares that we all understand the material he is presenting. His level of dedication to all of us is inspiring. Thanks for all you do to challenge all of us Mr. Minato!

Wilson Student-Athletes of the Week

Freshman Logan Erickson, Swimming: Logan is new to the team this year but was wonderful at the meet, supportive of other team members and didn't balk about swimming the fly in her first meet. We hope she continues to be a leader in her lane.

Senior Jessica Ewton, Swimming: Jessica has been super dedicated at practice and it showed in her meet results. Not only did she PR in her 500 free she was an excellent leg of our 200 free relay.

November Trojan Student-Athletes of the Month

Sophomore Huarui Lai, Swimming: Huarui chose to tackle AP Physics 2 as a sophomore and is one of the top students in the class. She goes above and beyond in every regard: Completing independent ungraded work on a regular basis, asking fantastic questions, and leading collaboration with her peers. On a more personal level, she is mature and introspective and kind and funny and we know she's going to make a difference in the world some day! Huarui is very conscientious, completing every assignment, whether it is for a grade or not; she wants to do everything she can to learn the subject. And she does not simply complete the assignments, Huarui wants to get them right—less than perfection is not acceptable to her. She does not need help or clarification very often, but when she does, you can count on Huarui to drop by on her own time before school or at lunch because she is always seeking a deeper understanding of the material.

Junior Carolyn Stone, Soccer, Basketball, Lacrosse: Carolyn is great student who is curious and diligent. Her effort helps get other students involved in class activities and supports other learners. She is very respectful and always puts her best work out. As an athlete, Carolyn is an excellent ambassador for Wilson. She pushes herself to be the best in her Athletic Development class and in practice. She is a tireless worker who does not let things like knee injuries prevent her from contributing to the team. She plays three sports and seems equally committed and excited about each of them. She always participates in class to the fullest extent. Carolyn listens intently and respectfully to her classmates and teachers when they share during class. She is very kind to others, helps whenever the opportunity arises and has a fun-loving spirit. She suffered a knee injury this fall and although she wasn't able to play in all the soccer games, she was still a member of the team as much as she could be. We appreciate her kindness, smile and wonderful attitude every day!

Send scanned photos to wilsontrojans2019@gmail.com; include your senior's name in the subject line of the email. Please use your best judgement—the grad night committee reserves the right to deny photos if they are in poor taste (this is a family-friendly event). Don't completely embarrass your Senior!
