Teen West Project: Year 6 - Him Her Them Us

Performing February 15-17 and 22-24 at 7:30pm

Performances on February 16th and 23rd include a post-show talkback with the writers, director and cast

Tickets available online now at app.arts-people.com/index.php?ticketing=whsta;
$15 General Admission/$10 Students & Educators

This year's installation of the Teen West Project consists of two one-act plays investigating the themes and challenges associated with gender and coming of age in the 21st Century. Old friendships, new crushes, swashbuckling adventure and a maritime battle role-playing game set the stage for Red Sky At Morning, a biting comedy that explores the ways we're shaped by the online communities we live in. LOST_FOR_WORDS tells the story of a sacred secret whose disclosure ripples through the community with explosive results. A neo-modernist drama, LOST_FOR_WORDS pushes the boundaries of theatricality, demanding that we question how we choose to embrace—or reject—the gray areas in our lives.

Senior Boys, You Could Be Mr. Trojan!

If you're a senior guy and you want to make a difference in the cancer community, then Mr. Trojan is the thing for you! It is a fundraiser for the Leukemia Lymphoma Society where you help raise money for an honored hero who has beaten cancer. The packets are in the main office and you should get one soon (because they are due Friday, February 9) and turn it into Ms. McFadden's box. There will be an informational meeting at the end of next week.

Hand In Hand: A Support and Coping Skills Group, Meets Every Wednesday at Lunch in Maureen Brennan's Office (next to the Nurse)

Do you struggle with stress and anxiety? You are not alone. According to a recent Oregon Healthy Teens Survey, conducted by the Oregon Health Authority, more than 40% of students lack coping abilities. Wilson Junior Ryan Bernstein and Wilson's Social Worker Maureen Brennan invite you to join them beginning this week for Wellness Wednesdays to explore and share coping techniques in a safe and supportive environment.

Track—Winter Training

Winter Training is underway. Meet everyday after school at 3:30 in room 31. Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to attend. Please come run when you can. Track season starts on February 26, so register now at www.familyid.com/wilson-hs. ## News from the Wilson Library

The Truth Be Told Wilson Story Slam, Kick-Off Session on February 9

2017-2018 Theme: Trouble

The Truth Be Told Wilson Story Slam is a live storytelling competition on February 22 from 3:30-4:30pm. Storytellers (slammers) have five minutes each to tell a real and true story about something that happened, based on this year's theme— Trouble. Story Slam encourages tellers to focus on what they're saying and how they're saying it. It is an exercise in crafting stories within a set time limit. And it is great entertainment!

The winner will get prizes and a chance to compete against other high schools at the first ever PPS Interscholastic Story Slam. Story Slam is currently seeking student storytellers, musicians, and scorekeepers. Come to our kick-off session Friday, February 9 during Tutor Time or see the library website (www.pps.net/Page/11216) for more information. Questions? Contact Cassie Lanzas at clanzas@pps.net.

Wilson Sophomores Compete to Raise Funds for Cancer Research, Now through March 4

Wilson students Ben Finnell, Lauren Davis, and Sam Altman, AKA Team Hat Trick, have banded together to seek Wilson's third state title as the leading student fundraising group for the Leukemia Lymphoma Society (LLS). Team Hat Trick is asking Portland residents to support this student-driven effort by visiting community donation stations, available at various Multnomah and Hillsdale businesses through March 4, or by donating online at events.lls.org/oswim/PortlandSOY2018/bfinnellrxu.

Grad Night Needs Your Unwanted Fabric

The Grad Night Committee is looking for fabric donations: linens that don't match your new decor, your grandmother's hoard of old linens and fabric, etc. Your donation of fabric, new or used, will be transformed into boxers that will become an integral piece of the 2018 graduation experience. If you have fabric to donate, please contact cartroy@mac.com for drop-off details. Thank you in advance for helping us make this a night they'll remember forever.
