2019 Les Schwab Bowl

Senior Keating Hinkley has been selected to play in the 2019 Les Schwab Bowl on Saturday, June 15, at the Hillsboro Stadium. Kick-off is at 6pm. This is a wonderful honor for a great student-athlete who is going on to play at Western Oregon University in the Fall. For more information, go to <http://www.lesschwabbowl.com/>.

Student-Athletes of the Month

Junior Henry Anderson, Men's Lacrosse: According to his teachers, Henry is a brilliant and dedicated AP physics student who excels on the theoretical work and in the lab. This continues beyond science where he excels in all of his classes and on the field and court. Toss in his charm and modesty. Mix all of this with his calm good nature. The result is a true Renaissance Man. Henry is a leader in the classroom and for his teams. He is dedicated, passionate, and an all-around great kid!

Junior Rachel Weirnick, Women's Tennis: According to her teachers, Rachel's intellectual rigor and attention to detail and excellence in the classroom is just as evident on the tennis court. Her understated style of study and play is not showy, but the final result is always impressive. She is an authentic scholar and athlete who lets her actions speak for her. These actions speak loudly and clearly. Look out world, here comes Rachel. She's a super-dedicated band student. Very reliable and a great musician. Rachel is a highly talented student. She was consistently able to balance the demands of a rigorous academic schedule and being an athlete. She also managed her end of the year schedule effectively to make sure that she was up to date on her assignments. Even after a long time, she worked hard to make sure she maintained a high level of readiness for tests that she may have missed. The bottom line is that she is a responsible student who could manage the competing responsibilities of school and sports.

Teachers of the Month

Marie Pearson, Art: Wilson students say, "Ms. Pearson is the most positive and outgoing human being I know. She flies around the classroom everyday sharing her ideas, teaching new techniques, and also doing handstands. She has created an all-inclusive environment for students to be free from the normal classroom stress and also get your hands a little bit dirty. She creates a fun, caring, and creative programs and does an outstanding job of promoting Wilson Art.”

Ellen Whatmore, Language Arts: Mrs. Whatmore’s students say, “she was always trying to further our knowledge and helped us understand literature and social justice in an interesting way. She is always open to questions and would help to the best of her abilities. She also was super spirited and involved with building class spirit. Mrs. Whatmore cares about each and every student in her class and wants them all to live up to their potential. Her classrooms are engaging, fun, and inquisitive.”

Norm Stremming, Language Arts/Social Studies: According to his students, “Mr. Stremming is extremely relatable with his students and makes class fun and engaging. He is easy to communicate with and passionate about what he does. Mr. Stremming is a great teacher that takes a unique and engaging approach to learning. He focuses on making students ready for college and life. Stremming is one of the realest teachers I’ve ever had. He has made such an impact on my life and the lives of Wilson Students.”

AP Art Students Paint to Win!

On Wednesday, June 5, students from Ms. Pearson’s AP Art Class participated in the “En Plein Air” painting competition held at PCC. This fun event re-imagined plein air painting as a wrestling match, with two 50-minute rounds a half-time, DJ, referee, MC, and a drumline. Three kindergarteners from the PCC Child development Center served as judges as PCC students gathered to watch the paintings develop. Wilson students worked collaboratively from start to finish on a 4' x 10' canvas with a Halloween rock concert as the subject of the painting. The judges showed excellent taste and discrimination and chose the Wilson canvas as the winner! The winning team consisted of Aria Delamarter, Georgia Feld-Denae, Anna Hansen, Deidra Kolnick, Kylie Robinson, Isaac Soto, Sophia Burton, Graham Lampe and Lucas Yao. For a picture of the team and the winning painting, go to www.pps.net/domain/2739.

Teacher Appreciation Thursday, June 13

Join Wilson parents in thanking the teachers and staff by providing an end-of-the-year luncheon on Thursday June 13. Donations from Wilson PTA and Wilson Boosters are taking care of the pizza and desserts are covered too—we just need your side dishes and drinks to bring it all together. Sign up at <https://volunteersignup.org/KTYLP>.

Parent Leader Recruitment Event

We are currently recruiting for leadership positions for Foundation, PTA, and Boosters, our three main parent organizations. Each of these groups provides crucial support to create a community where our students can learn, thrive, and do their best. This is the time of year when we need to replace “retiring” leaders and bring in new people with fresh energy and perspectives. With new leadership in Wilson administration coming in for next year it should be an exciting time to be involved and it will be more important than ever to have strong support from our parent organizations.

If you are interested in taking on an active role, if you want to make a difference at Wilson, if you have energy and new ideas and want to work in a collaborative environment to support Wilson, please join us for a Wilson Parent Leader Summit on June 17 at 6pm. Learn more about the three parent groups, hear from incoming principal Filip Hristić about his vision for parent involvement, and raise your hand to take on a leadership position. Snacks and beverages will be provided at an off-campus location. RSVP to Erica Meyers (emeyers@pps.net).

Registration Open Now for Fall Sports
