Congratulations to Wilson's Rose City Rowing Club Rowers!

Graduating senior Hannah Davis (and her eight state-champion boatmates) heads to Nationals this week to compete for the national title in the WV8+ race at the U.S. Rowing Youth National Championships in Sarasota Florida (June 9-11, 2017). The championships are the premier high school rowing event in the U.S., where 1500 athletes from 350 crews are vying for national titles in 18 boat classes.

It's been an exciting and accomplished year for varsity and novice rowers alike, with Wilson rowers taking multiple medals at the recent U.S. Rowing Northwest Youth Regional Championships:

- Senior Jake Mecham Gold medal M5V4+
- Freshman Anna Hansen, Gold medal W3V8+
- Freshman Max Altman, Silver medal, M2N8+ (stroke seat)
- Freshman Dakota Hedger Participant W4N8+
- Freshman Kara Van Horn (injury)

Interested in rowing? No experience needed, check out <http://www.rosecityrowing.org/programs/> and <https://vimeo.com/85322100>. All are welcome! Rose City Rowing Club prohibits discrimination in employment or in any of its programs, procedures or practices on the basis of race, national origin, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or associational preference. Rose City Rowing Club is a non-profit (#93-1327726).

Super Successful Senior BBQ!

Boosters would like to thank all of the volunteers for their tremendous support in pulling off our successful BBQ celebration of the Class of 2017! We fed over 500 people, BBQing 320 burgers, 130 hot dogs, 70 Garden Burgers and a couple of vegan burgers. We would especially like to thank Grill Master Extraordinaire Kevin Krake for turning out hundreds of great tasting meals; he battled bleeding eyes and seared lungs from trying to see and breath during the gale force winds. Thanks Kevin!!
