NEWS

New: Congratulations to the winners of Wilson's First Story Slam

1st Place: Elisa Mickelson (9th grade)

2nd Place: Ari Lohr (9th grade)

3rd Place: James Wheeler (11th grade)

We had a great group of story slammers and a wonderful audience! Thanks to all of our judges: Sylvia Hart-Landsberg; Will Whittlesey; Laura Axon; and Amy Feller as scorekeeper and timekeeper. Also Nora Brooks for helping to MC the event and the Wilson PTA for providing the prize money for first place.

Next up is the Poetry Slam on April 12. It will be held in the Wilson Auditorium starting at 3:30 p.m. Rules and information available in the Library.

New: “My Life Matters” Assembly

Today's assembly was a collaborative effort between our Leadership class, our Black Student Union, Gender and Sexuality Alliance, Latin@ Club and the Asian and Pacific Islander Club—alongside many engaged teachers/advisors. The focus of the assembly was an affirmation that every student at Wilson High School matters and deserves to be treated with dignity, compassion and respect. The keynote address was delivered by Reed College professor Dr. Kathleen Saadat. If you missed it, you can watch the video here: <http://www.pps.net/wilson>.

Wilson Robotics News

The season started in September with over 4,500 teams competing around the world—four of those teams from Wilson. Through a series of elimination tournaments, by March only about 300 teams were left, including Wilson's Team 7776, Loose Screws. Last weekend in Tacoma they competed in the Western U.S. Regional Competition and finished 15th in their 36-team division, placing them in the top 3% of all teams in the U.S. Congratulations on a great season to the entire team and especially seniors Sam Johnson and Nathan Haight, founding members of the Wilson Robotics Club. Team members are: Captain Sam Johnson, Alissa Bergquist, Benjamin Carleton, Nathan Haight, Sean Harrington, Noah Koontz, Thomas Lemoine, Jake Makuch, and Rispa Vranka Wafula.

Wilson's 2017 Rose Princess

Senior Maggie Beutler has been selected as Wilson's representative on the Rose Festival Court. Born in Guixi, China, Maggie is the daughter of Toija and William Beutler and hopes to major in English in college and become a writer for film and television.

Wilson Scholarship Winner

Senior Diana Fajer has been awarded the Oregon State University Presidential Scholarship, the most prestigious awarded by OSU. The scholarship provides $40,000 over the student's undergraduate career ($10,000 renewable for four years). Congratulations, Diana!

PIL Solo & Ensemble Results

Wilson's Chamber Orchestra is going to State for large string ensembles, and Annia Hedlund won the mezzo soprano category and is going to State! To add to that excitement, Finn Henell is PIL winner on solo trombone. All of these amazing musicians will head to state competition on April 29. Congratulations and good luck!

How and Why to Help your Teen get Enough Sleep

(Excerpts from YourTeenMagazine interview with Arianna Huffington)

Research shows the majority of teenagers are sleep-deprived. How does not getting enough sleep impact our teens?

The impact can be severe, and sleep is a particular problem for teens. Studies have shown that insufficient sleep is directly linked to stress and anxiety in teens. And with the distraction of technology and school start times that are too early across much of the country, a high percentage of our teens are not getting adequate sleep.

Last Day of School is Now June 15

The April 7 teacher-planning day has been changed to an instructional day, and another day has been added to the school year. The last day of school is now June 15. These calendar changes do not affect graduation dates for seniors.

COMMUNITY

Free Week at Camp Erin

Do you know a grieving child or teen? Camp Erin is a weekend overnight camp for children and teens ages 6-17 who have experienced the death of someone close to them. At Camp Erin, kids have the opportunity to be around other kids who have experienced similar losses. They participate in fun, traditional camp activities (swimming, fishing, arts & crafts, games, campfires, and more) while gaining a better understanding of their own grief. Camp Erin is free to all families and runs August 11-13 in Boring, Oregon. For more information, contact Christi Crowley at camperinportland@providence.org or 503-215-5879.
