February Trojan Student-Athletes of the Month

Two outstanding student-athletes who embody all that is awesome at Wilson!

Sophomore Togtuun Tumurkhuu, Swimming: Here is what Togtuun's teachers had to say about her: "I am in awe of Togtuun. She is mature beyond her years with a clear sense of how her work and her actions impact her community. She moves through the world with integrity and quiet strength, reminding us all to be a little wiser and more mindful in everything we do. I use her work often as a model for the class because of her attention to detail and critical thinking skills. She is a fantastic teacher and leader. Thanks, Togtuun!”

Senior Kalycia Hodge, Basketball: Here is what Kalycia's teachers had to say about her: “Kalycia is an invaluable member of my Anatomy and Physiology class. She’s new to Wilson this year and seems to have made a smooth transition into the community. She is an intelligent young woman who works hard and is excelling in class. She is a quiet leader in the classroom, often leading by example. While some of her classmates socialize and get off task she manages to get her work done and appropriately socialize! Although she is often quiet in class, she always participates and asks good questions and I appreciate her sense of humor!”
