EVENTS

Wednesday, March 20

Aspire Trailblazers Game and Career Event

Aspire students are invited to attend a career learning opportunity to visit the Portland Trailblazers and learn about careers in the organization as well as attend the Dallas Mavericks vs. Trailblazers game on March 20. You will receive an invitation to attend. The first 20 students to return the permission slip will be admitted to this outstanding field trip!

Voices Unheard, Room 108, 6-8:00pm

Please join Wilson's Social Justice class for a student-produced, student-led, star-studded event! Voices Unheard: Telling Untold Stories will feature an art auction, slam poetry, dance, dramatic monologues, and a student panel. The event is free to attend and we will be collecting donations to acquire class sets of current, relevant books that represent untold stories in an effort to provide the best education possible to all our students. Come support if you can! You can also learn more and make a donation here: www.gofundme.com/voices-unheard-telling-untold-stories.

Thursday, March 21

Grad Requirement Completion Workshop, Room 149 During Tutor Time

Not sure if you finished those CRLE Reflections? Still need to turn in your resume? Is your My Plan essay checked off in order for you to graduate? Come to the College & Career Center during tutor time for assistance, and get it done!

PTA Clothing Closet Day Volunteers Needed Thursday, March 21, 9:30am-1:30pm—Sign Up Now!

The PTA Clothing Closet at the Marshall High School campus supplies students ages 4-18 with new or gently used clothing. The Wilson PTA needs to supply at least six volunteers to sort clothes and help students and their families shop. If you can only make part of the shift, sign up anyway. Meet there or carpool from Wilson. Email Edward Jacobowitz (edaj71@gmail.com) to sign up or with questions.

Friday, March 22

Imprah! The Improv Marathon

Students may attend by class depending on teacher, general session open to everyone (as long as space is available) during Tutor Time. This is part of the WHS Leadership spring fundraising drive, so bring change and cash to kick off the tally on behalf of some great organizations.

New Wilson Student Writes Winning Essay

Wilson Sophomore Benjamin Kono's essay is a runner-up winner in the 2019 Minoru Yasui Day Essay Contest sponsored by the The Oregon Nikkei Endowment and the Minoru Yasui Legacy Project.

The contest honors the legacy of Minoru Yasui, an Oregon attorney who committed his life to the defense of human and civil rights. His arrest and conviction for challenging the curfew and relocation orders for Japanese American citizens during World War II went all the way to the Supreme Court. In November 2015, President Barack Obama bestowed upon Minoru Yasui the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award given in the United States. In February 2016, the Oregon Legislature unanimously voted to designate March 28 of each year as Minoru Yasui Day in recognition of the importance of standing up for what you believe in and working to end discrimination in Oregon.

Congratulations, Ben!

Congratulations to Wilson's Oregon Battle of the Books Team!

Wilson's OBOB team, The Doom, did an excellent job at the district competition on Saturday, March 16. They will be advancing on to the state competition in April! Team members include Grace Pendergrass, Jack Conway, Sophia Stedman, and Ember Summer. Janacia Robertson, Ethan Satterstein, and Blu Brunson also participated in OBOB and placed second in our school competition. Each student read at least four books and as a group, they read over 50 books!

Snowboard Ends Season Strong!

The Snowboard Team finished up their season at state this past weekend. Carmen Donnerberg was 1st place in the Banked Slalom and as a team they finished 2nd in State!

Wilson Student-Athletes of the Week

Sophomore Kiana Roletto, Women's Tennis: According to Coach Daigle, Kiana has won two challenge matches in prior weeks to earn a spot on the varsity rotation. Last week, with injuries and illness affecting attendance, Kiana landed at #2 doubles against West Linn and #3 singles against Wilsonville. Despite losing to a seasoned West Linn opponent, she came back the next day to score a 6-3, 6-2 win against Wilsonville and help the team record a 4-4 tie in that match. Way to persevere, Kiana!

Sophomore Nolan Sottoway, Men's Tennis: According to Coach Sussman, Nolan began his sophomore season with two huge 4th singles victories on the road managing to not even lose a set. Nolan is an outstanding student in the classroom as well taking a rigorous course load. Nolan has helped the Men's Tennis Team become true contenders this year!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Upcoming Dates

See the Wilson website for all the details: www.pps.net/wilson

March 25-29: Spring Break

April 1: 60-Day Rule for Seniors Begins

New Wilson Student Parking Reminders

Wilson Students and Parents: Unfortunately, while we understand that students would like to be able to park on the Wilson campus, we do not have enough parking spots for all of our student drivers. Students with a Wilson 2019 Student Parking Pass may park in student parking, if a legal space is available. A student parking pass does not provide a reserved space or guarantee a spot, so please be aware that even with a parking pass students may have to find alternative parking off campus.

Wilson teachers have assigned, reserved spaces marked “Staff” in yellow paint. An empty staff spot is not a legal parking space for student parking permit-holders. Teachers are sometimes required to come and go during the day and plan to return to their assigned space. Please respect our teachers and do not park in staff parking. Students who park in staff spaces will get a parking ticket. All parking tickets must be paid before we will issue prom tickets or graduation tickets.

Students parked in visitor, volunteer and handicapped parking spots will also be ticketed and/or towed. Disabled students, staff and families who have a disabled parking placard are the only ones who may legally park in disabled parking.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Wilson Student Essay Contest

All students are invited to submit an essay about a Wilson teacher who you think is a hero. In 300 words or less tell us why this teacher is a hero to you. Winners will receive a $50 gift card and the opportunity to read your essay at the Wilson Auction on April 27. Send submissions to hilaryconway@comcast.net no later than Friday, April 5, and good luck!

PTA Scholarship

Wilson PTA Scholarship, Due April 5, Award: $1,000 (2)

Two graduating Wilson seniors each year will each be awarded a scholarship of $1,000 to be used to defray the cost of a post-secondary education. This may include advanced study at tertiary educational institutions such as universities, academies, colleges, seminaries, and institutes of technology, trade schools, and career colleges. A complete application packet must be delivered to the school office no later than 3:30pm on April 5 to be considered for this scholarship. Packets can be placed in the PTA mailbox. Applications are in the counseling office or in your email (sent by Julie Fleming on 2/28).

Teacher Appreciation, April 8

Bring on Spring with a fresh, fun Fruit Stand for the Wilson Staff on April 8. Apples (and so much more) for teacher! <https://volunteersignup.org/LP7A4>.

Wilson Booster Club is Looking for a Few Volunteers

It's time to recruit new volunteers so those that have already given their time and talents can move on to other pursuits. We have a solid group of volunteers returning to Boosters but are also looking to fill some critical roles. Here is a summary of open roles for the 2019-20 school year:

- Vice President: Will shadow the President in 2019-20 with the intention of stepping into the President role in 2020-21.
- Secretary: Takes notes at Booster Meetings. Required to be at the Booster meetings. Preference would be to have a laptop so notes are taken directly in google docs. This is a great role to learn all about Boosters.
- Brick Sales: Coordinates the sale and engraving of the bricks outside the snack shack. This brings in funds for Boosters and builds community. Time estimate of one hour per month.

Signup.com Coordinator: Updates the SignUp.com account with all the sports games and events where Boosters will have concessions open. This role puts in 2-4 hours between each sports season.

- Membership: Tracks Booster membership. Market membership in the fall and create a list of current members that is entered into our gmail system for email communications. The work of this role is heavy in the fall (4-6 hours) and then light the rest of the year.

Social Media: Posts announcements on our Wilson Booster Club facebook page: www.facebook.com/Wilson-Booster-Club-Wilson-High-School-Portland-1877529725698854/. Check out what was done this school year.

- Communications Chair: Oversees volunteer coordinator, webmaster and SignUp.com admin. Time estimate of 3-4 hours per month.
- Volunteer Coordinator: Helps ensure we have volunteers for positions needed. This role will focus on filling volunteer needs as they arise. Time estimate of 1-3 hours per month.

If you are interested in learning more, contact Booster President Ruth White at ruthw@wilsonboosterclub.com.

Build Your Career after Wilson: Spring Info & Exploration Series

Discover Job Corps Info Session, Wednesday, April 3, Room 150 during Tutor Time

Still unsure what you want to do with your future? Do you need a little help developing a career plan and obtaining the skills and training to meet that goal? Come learn about how Job Corps can help you succeed in the future. This no-cost, federally funded program for 16-24 year-olds provides academic and career technical training for a variety of careers. Students can earn college credits through Job Corps or complete their high school diploma or equivalent while enrolled. An admissions counselor will be on hand to answer your questions. Pre-register in Naviance or at the College & Career Center.

Discover the Construction Trades Info Session, Thursday, April 25, Room 150 during Tutor Time

Featuring Northwest College of Construction and June Kalkhoven, Owner of Oxbow Construction and Northwest Utility Contractors Association Board Member. Are you interested in a career in the construction trades? Not sure where to start in this high-wage, high-demand field? Come to this information session to learn about what it's like to work in the various construction trades and what education and skills you'll need for a successful career. Specific information about apprenticeship and training opportunities available at the NW College of Construction will be shared. pre-register in Naviance or at the College & Career Center.

Pacific Northwest Carpenters Institute Career Day, Friday, April 26

Explore carpentry, skilled trades, and apprenticeships with PNCI and learn how to break in to this high-wage, high-demand industry. Sponsored by Portland Workforce Alliance. Pick up registration materials in the College & Career Center.

Portland General Electric Career Day, Friday, May 10

Explore electrical, skilled trades, and apprenticeships with PGE and learn about entry-level opportunities in this industry. Sponsored by Portland Workforce Alliance. Pick up registration materials in the College & Career Center.

Oregon Tradeswomen Annual Career Fair School Day, Friday, May 17

School Day at Oregon Tradeswomen's annual Career Fair offers a unique, hands-on opportunity for young people to learn about apprenticeship and career training opportunities after high school without the burden of college debt. The interactive, hands-on learning opportunities allow students to use the tools of the trades, talk directly with tradeswomen about the work they do, and gain knowledge about satisfying, high-paying careers in the construction trades. Pick up registration materials in the College & Career Center.

Attention Senior Parents

From Tiffany Jeffords: "Thank you to the many who have already sent pictures of their kids to me for the senior slideshow. I am trying to respond to each and every one of you so you know I got your email but I have some catching up to do! For those of you who have not sent your photos, it is not too late. Please send me photos of your senior—four max. Photos should be sent to wilsono@wilson.edu and if you have any questions, please reach out to me. Deadline is April 1st."
