New Unified Basketball Season Finishes Strong

The Unified Basketball Team capped off a great year by bringing home the Silver Medal at their end of the year tournament at Wilsonville over the weekend. The squad finished 9-1 for the season and did an outstanding job of creating an inclusive and fun program. Thank you to the coaches for creating such a positive environment for our students, athletes, and our school!

New Student-Athletes of the Week

Junior Anna Hansen, Unified Basketball: Anna was a vital part of our success at the tournament. She really stepped it up on the boards, leading the team in offensive rebounds. She was a physical presence in the paint and gave us countless opportunities for second chance points. Anna is a leader on the court and always gives her best effort. Her positive attitude is contagious and we're lucky to have her back with us for another season.

Freshman Mac Montgomery, Unified Basketball: Mac's defense was a big reason for our success this year, but he really stepped up his offensive game at the tournament in Wilsonville, directing teammates to get open and set screens. He's a confident and aggressive player and a leader in our program. Mac frequently guarded the other team's best player and consistently frustrated opponents with his passion for defense. We're excited to have him back next season!

tale of accidental fire and childhood innocence. Fatimah Hobaish warmed everyone's hearts with a story about bonding with birds and overcoming hardship, earning the "Warming Wilson Hearts Award." And, last but not least, Selah Monsef recounted a harrowing experience with pneumonia to win the "Rising Star Award."
