2019 NCWIT Award for Aspirations in Computing

The National Center for Women in Technology has recognized eight Wilson students with their Aspirations Award, aimed at acknowledging high school girls with excellent skills and future potential in computing. The awards event is scheduled for Sunday April 7, at Lewis and Clark College. Wilson's recipients are:

Zoe Bennett, Senior

Bronte McKinnis, Sophomore

Lily Stoll, Junior

Sierra Loiselle, Senior (Honorable Mention)

Chloe Unflat, Junior (Honorable Mention)

Rachel Weirnick, Junior (Honorable Mention)

The NCWIT advises girls planning a career computing to continue to take programming classes; participate and take leadership roles in robotics programming, or other tech teams; take technology courses outside school through (Saturday Academy, college programs, summer technology camps, etc.); participate in ASE, college or industry internship programs; teach your skills in community programs (be a counselor in a technology summer camp, mentor a robotics team in your local elementary school, form a Girls who Code or other technical club, etc.). Go, girls!

Solo and Ensemble Results

Wilson musicians competed in the Oregon Music Education Association's Solo and Ensemble District Competition on March 2, with both Choir and Orchestra programs faring very well:

- Wilson Advanced Vocal Ensemble (WAVE) placed 1st in the large mixed vocal ensemble category
- Chamber Orchestra placed 1st in the large strings ensemble category

- The following students placed 1st in their vocal category: Annika Philipps, Adia Jones and Taumaia Uili. Jackson Wray placed 1st alternate in his vocal category followed by George Ramsey as 2nd alternate
- Fiona Dubay placed 1st alternate for viola solo
- Fiona Dubay and Akseli Mende placed 1st alternate in strings duet category, followed by Fiona Dubay and Shea Yurdana as 2nd alternate

First-place winners will go on to the State Competition. First alternates will most likely go on to State if performance time slots are available in their category. Congratulations, Wilson musicians!

Unified Basketball Season Finishes Strong

The Unified Basketball Team capped off a great year by bringing home the Silver Medal at their end of the year tournament at Wilsonville over the weekend. The squad finished 9-1 for the season and did an outstanding job of creating an inclusive and fun program. Thank you to the coaches for creating such a positive environment for our students, athletes, and our school!

Student-Athletes of the Week

Junior Anna Hansen, Unified Basketball: Anna was a vital part of our success at the tournament. She really stepped it up on the boards, leading the team in offensive rebounds. She was a physical presence in the paint and gave us countless opportunities for second chance points. Anna is a leader on the court and always gives her best effort. Her positive attitude is contagious and we're lucky to have her back with us for another season.

Freshman Mac Montgomery, Unified Basketball: Mac's defense was a big reason for our success this year, but he really stepped up his offensive game at the tournament in Wilsonville, directing teammates to get open and set screens. He's a confident and aggressive player and a leader in our program. Mac frequently guarded the other team's best player and consistently frustrated opponents with his passion for defense. We're excited to have him back next season!
