NEWS

Speech and Debate Hosts Tournament and Finds Wins

The Speech and Debate Team hosted the Wilson Invitational Tournament last Saturday and team members had another successful week. The tournament was the largest it has ever been, with over 500 coaches, parents, and competitors from 30 schools attending. The team would like to thank the faculty, staff, and administration at Wilson for their unfailing support of the event, which is their principle fundraiser and responsible for about 30% of the team's annual budget.

Congratulations to Wilson speakers on their success: Emma Koontz (Finalist After Dinner Speaking), Ari Lohr (3rd Programmed Oral Interpretation, Finalist After Dinner Speaking), the Duo Interpretation team of Oli Devereaux and Zoe Carver (2nd place), Amy Sloan (2nd Radio Commentary), Huarui Lai (3rd Prose Reading), Chester Mantel (Finalist, Impromptu), Nathaniel Nelson (Finalist, Oratory), novice division speakers Preston Bushnell (3rd Lincoln-Douglas Debate, 2nd 1st Impromptu) and Cara Weathers (2nd Impromptu, 1st Poetry Reading), and the Public Forum Debate team of Nathaniel Nelson and Ethan Eisner (3rd place).

The team competes again the weekend of October 20 at Willamette University in Salem.

Wilson Student-Athletes of the Week

Junior Debby Austin, Soccer: Debby scored the equalizer in a hard fought 1-1 tie at Lincoln this week with a goal was a great symbol of the positive energy and effort she has put in all season. It was a huge goal for our team and gave us a great shot at winning the PIL title, if only we could have found the net one more time in the match.

Senior Jake Winkler, Soccer: Jake is having an outstanding year as one of the strongest defenders in the PIL! He always plays hard and with integrity, inspiring his teammates to play a little harder each day and with GRIT!

Wilson Athletic Leadership Council Teachers of the Month for September

Jaydra Johnson: The Leadership Council says Ms. Johnson is one of the most inclusive, outgoing, and thoughtful teachers here at Wilson High School. Her classes are engaging and thought provoking. She genuinely cares about the school and community and she goes out of her way to genuinely get to know her students in her classroom. Ms. Johnson makes everyone in her class feel welcomed and everyone is heard. She is awesome!

Aaron Olsen: The Leadership Council had this to say about Mr. Olsen: Mr. Olsen's classes are more than just about the day to day but rather, he is teaching life skills and lessons that students can take with them for life. He is passionate about the subject matter that he teaches and that comes across in his energy in his classroom. He makes everyone feel welcome and respected in his classes and he goes out of his way to challenge all of his students. He rocks!

A Letter from PPS Interim Title IX Coordinator Regarding Reporting Sexual Violence or Discrimination

October 10, 2018

Dear PPS High School Students,

Local and national events have led to an increase in awareness and reporting of sexual harassment, discrimination, sexual violence, sexual assault, and teen dating violence. While we decry that these events happen at all, we want to be sure you know that if you experience or are aware of sexual violence or discrimination that we want you to report these concerns to our schools so that we can help ensure your safety and well-being.

If you are concerned about or experience sexual violence or discrimination, we, of course, encourage you to seek the support of your family. We also encourage you to talk to a trusted adult in your school, which could be a counselor, teacher, administrator, or other staff member. Read more here . . .
