September Trojan Student-Athletes of the Month

Junior Chloe Unflat, Women's Soccer: Mr. Potter says, "Chloe Unflat is one of the most impressive young women I've ever met. Ever. She is hard-working, smart, energetic, kind, and a pure joy to be around. If she is ever stumped by a calculus problem, she stops by the classroom, on her own time, and works diligently until she has it mastered. She enthusiastically attacks every difficult assignment with a smile and with a record of success that is near perfection." In addition, Chloe has the unique ability to lead by example and always is positive, respectful, and caring, especially with her teammates. She is an active member of our Wilson Athletic Leadership Program and has dived right into the work striving to make Wilson an amazing community. She is one of a kind and we are lucky to have her here at Wilson!

Junior Jaden Sturgeon, Football: Wilson teachers Ms. Wolff and Mr. Trezise describe Jaden as a young man of the highest character, adding that he is loyal, resilient, kind, hard-working, courageous and one of Wilson High School's biggest fans. He is a junior this year and already talking about how he plans to "give back" to WHS in the years after he graduates. Jaden is a peer counselor and a multi-sport athlete. He gives his best to every activity, all the time. He is a student who knows how to turn his own challenges into compassion and positive attitude toward others. Students (and people) like Jaden are rare. If you interact with Jaden, you'll find one of the kindest young men here at Wilson, and one of the hardest working. If Jaden sees you in the hallways he'll ask, "How are you?" expressing empathy and caring for those he encounters, which is a rare trait for most people, let alone students! His curiosity and engagement with athletics and academics are both impressive and deep. He often sees things that many other people do not. He wears many different hats for one so young. Jaden can be a friend, a teammate, a coach, and a strategist, often considering which role is needed most by the team or the group. There is no doubt that good things lay ahead for Jaden. His work ethic, intelligence, and maturity pave a road that leads straight to success. We could all learn a thing or two from Jaden.

Wilson Student-Athletes of the Week

Junior Hunter Davis, Football: According to Coach Kilpatrick-White, Hunter's only snap on offense was an 80-yard touchdown pass and he played an excellent game defensively against Hillsboro on September 28. In the classroom, his work ethic and focus on process are exemplary.

Sophomore Melia Patrick, Volleyball: Coach Mendak reports that Melia is assisting the Trojan offense with more than just sets, but also adding her hustle and leadership on and off the court. Serving, passing, and cheering, she is highly involved from start to finish.
