As Numerous as the stars

The stars on the entry wall of the school are just the beginning of all the families, individuals and businesses that have given to Stephenson Foundation. The stars are a reminder that it takes many hands to support an excellent education.

This year Stephenson Foundation was able to give over $43,000 directly to Stephenson.

Amy Liu Steps Down

For three years, Amy Liu, working mom of two amazing boys at Stephenson, has served our school diligently. She is a dedicated and significant advocate for our kids. She has spent countless hours researching best practices and untapped fundraising opportunities. Amy set up the Amazon link which brings in funds year-round as well as researched and jumped hoops to bring in high-value items for the auction.

Thank you, Amy, for your years of service. Working with you has been a privilege.

Opportunities on the Board

All board members contribute to brainstorming and decision making.

Online Communications: This person learns Red-Dot and keeps information on the school website current.

Procurement Database Manager: Works to maintain and manage a central procurement list for the various events.

Auction Co-chairs: Manage teams for the biggest fund-raiser/ community event of the year.

To Auction or Not to Auction

Every year the discussion of whether or not holding an auction is the best way to raise money is brought up. Any person on the board is happy to hear your thoughts and opinions on this subject.

Holding an auction is historically one of the best ways to raise large amounts of money in a single event. It takes the support of a committed volunteer team and a community that is committed to the cause. Foundation needs team leads for this event as well as co-chairs to work with the board for the 2013/14 school year.
