

25¢ or Bust (8A)

Partner A and B:

My card is worth _____ ¢ cents.

 Do I draw another card?

Partner A and B:

Yes I do

My next card is worth _____ cents.

Now I have a total of _____ cents showing.

No I don't

No, I do not want another card.

Partner A and B:

I wrote the number sentence _____ + _____ + _____ + _____ = _____ .
I have a total of _____ cents.

Partner A and B:

I was _____ cents under 25¢

Or

I was _____ cents over 25¢

Handfuls of Treasure (8B)

I started with _____ glass blobs.

I took _____ glass blobs from the container.

Handfuls of Treasure (8B)

I started with _____ glass blobs.

I took _____ glass blobs from the container.

Handfuls of Treasure (8B)

I started with _____ glass blobs.

I took _____ glass blobs from the container.

Jump a 10 (8C)

We placed our markers on _____ and _____ to start the game.
number number

I rolled the number _____.

Then I flipped the penny.

I got _____ so I will _____ _____ tens.
heads → add number

tails → subtract

The number sentence is _____ equals _____.
number plus number number
minus

Now it is your turn!

I think my number is closer to 100 because _____.
justify your reasoning

Jump a Hundred (8D)

We marked and labeled _____ and _____ on the number line to start the game.

I rolled the number _____.

Then I flipped the penny.

I got _____ so I will _____ _____ hundreds.

heads  add _____ number

tails  subtract

The number sentence is _____ equals _____.
number plus number number
 minus

Now it is your turn!

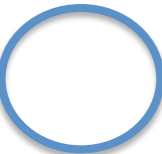

I think my number is closer to 500 because _____.
justify your reasoning

Greatest Difference Wins (8E)

First I spun _____ plus _____ which has the sum of .

Then I spun _____ plus _____ which has the sum of .

To find the difference, I can write the equation plus _____ equals .

Or

 Minus  equals _____.

I know my difference is _____ because _____.

Now it is your turn.

At the end of the game:

My difference is greater because _____

Base Ten Triple Spin (8F)

We are playing for _____.
(more/less)

I spun _____ and put it in the _____ place.

Repeat

My score was _____.

The difference between the two scores was _____.

Base Ten Triple Spin (8F)

We are playing for _____.
(more/less)

I spun _____ and put it in the _____ place.

Repeat

My score was _____.

The difference between the two scores was _____.