Franklin Strong: Tradition, Community, and Future

Tradition: Franklin High School's history in Portland's South Tabor neighborhood is a deep and lasting one. For more than a century, generations of families have attended the school and welcomed newcomers who continue to strengthen its already rich traditions and culture.

Community: Franklin currently welcomes 28 different languages spoken by our students and their families. The school provides a supportive and diverse environment for our families and community to prepare our students for life-long learning.

Future: We are proud to have been recognized nationally for our work toward closing the achievement gap and ensuring academic success for every student. We are committed to providing a high-quality educational experience for all students. Our academic culture is driven by the vision that all students are fully prepared to pursue higher education in all its forms. Our course work and multiple programs help broaden and deepen students' knowledge, increase their skills and inspire their confidence to achieve their future goals.

MISSION STATEMENT

Franklin High School engages each and every student with instruction based on both tradition and innovation that broadens and deepens knowledge, increases skills, and inspires confidence. Providing a diverse and supportive environment, for our educators, families and community to prepare our students for a strong future and appreciation for lifelong learning and service.

"I was offered a scholarship to a private school but chose Franklin instead because of the diverse cultures and different points of view."

—Victor Candia, Class of 2019

Franklin re-modernized: In the fall of 2017 Franklin High School opened its doors to a newly modernized 21st century educational facility. The school has an open campus feel, with state of the art facilities in the arts, CTE shops and learning spaces, and high levels of technology throughout the entire site.

College and Career

A dedicated team of 6 Counselors and 1 Career Coordinator supports students on their path to post-high school college and career. Franklin also offers the college-preparatory program AVID which teaches skills to prepare students for success in high school, college and in their careers.
