

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Non Represented – Performance Appraisal

1. What is the review cycle for Non-Represented employees?

The review cycle for Non Represented has been updated to be annual. The review period follows the fiscal/academic year, July 1st through June 30th.

2. Why did the review cycle change from every two years to every year?

The Board of Directors and our PPS Executive leadership have updated our review cycle to better align with the best practice of providing feedback to employees on a more regular basis, in this case an annual review.

3. When do reviews need to be completed by?

June 30, 2019, is the review submission date.

4. What is the performance period for reviews submitted by June 30, 2019?

The review period will cover two fiscal/academic years: 2017/2018 and 2018/2019.

5. What if a review was completed last year?

If a review for an employee was completed last year and covered the 2017/2018 fiscal/academic year, the review completed this year only has to cover the 2018/2019 year.

6. What is the cutoff date for new hires who require a review?

Any employee hired on or before December 31, 2018 will need to have a review completed.

7. Who enters reviews into PeopleSoft?

Managers, or if necessary their designee, can complete the review documentation in PeopleSoft for direct reports. Employees cannot enter information into PeopleSoft.

8. There are an additional eight competencies. Who do these apply to?

If you supervise any other employee, your review will be based on the five (5) competencies and the additional eight (8) leadership competencies.

9. Do I have to put a comment in each section?

All of the PeopleSoft fields are not required to be filled. However, it is highly recommend managers make comments in each section. You must put a comment in each section that you give a “Role Model” or “Improvement needed” rating.

10. What is the purpose of the self appraisal form?

The self-appraisal form was created to be a working document for employees in helping them to reflect back on the past year and think about future expectations. The form should be brought to the review conversation by each Non-Represented employee to ensure all relevant topics are discussed. Managers may request the form prior to the review meeting.

11. Is the Self Appraisal worksheet placed in my personnel file?

No, the worksheet is simply a working document to assist in the review process. It does not become part of the employee's permanent record.

12. Do I still need to print out a copy of the review, or is submitting it in PeopleSoft sufficient?

Yes, a hard copy of the review must be printed out and acknowledged through a signature by the employee and manager. The signed review needs to be submitted to Human Resources. The review documentation will be completed in PeopleSoft and submitted through PeopleSoft as well.

13. Who can I contact if I have any questions regarding the process?

General Questions: Please send questions to Human Resources at CCinquiries@pps.net.
PeopleSoft Questions: Please send questions to hristeam@pps.net

14. What happens if a review is not completed?

A current review must be on file for an employee in order to be eligible for a COLA or step increase in the event they are budgeted.

15. What happens if someone had more than 1 manager in the year?

The current manager will need to complete the review in PeopleSoft. However, the current manager should connect with the prior manager/s if possible.

16. What should a new manager at PPS do if they haven't been her the entire year?

If possible, connect with prior managers or next level managers for the employee about contributions throughout the year. If this isn't possible, the manager should document performance given the information that is available.

Don't.....

- Bring up a performance issue for the first time unless you have to
 - Should have already been discussed .
- Discuss/criticize personality traits. You can discuss behaviors and results.
- Be vague. Regardless of the message, use clear language the employee can understand and process.
- Allow one action or a recent event to effect the entire review.
- Dominate the conversation. Provide space for the employee to share their assessment of their contributions.
