A Message from Principal Pam

Final arrangements are being made to bring aboard our Educational Assistants. We hope to have the join us VERY soon. In the meantime, we are creating schedules that allow the EAs to support students and teachers in the classroom and to add extra support on the playground during recess.

Next week we will be interviewing candidates for our new 5th grade class. Class lists, supplies and classroom preparations are underway. We hope to interview candidates at the start of the week. Once a candidate is chosen, references are checked, and final papers are turned into HR, then we will need to be patient as HR completes its process. The new teacher will also be given time to plan and set up the classroom the way he or she would like. I will let everyone know when a definite date has been set for the class change. Thank you for the many offers of support! I am proud of the way our community pulls together to support our students and our school.

From the office:

Our school Health Room is in need of extra clothing for larger students (9 and up). Donations can be brought to the Office or the Health Room. Thank you for your support!

Star Flier

Attached here is the September 27.pdf issue of the Star Flier for 2019-20. This year, the Star Flier will be a monthly publication. All students are encouraged to submit news articles, stories, and poems. It is helpful (but not required) to submit them via email or Google Docs. Artwork should be drawn on blank (no lined) paper and traced over in black pen to make it clearer when scanned.

The next two issues will come out on October 25th, and November 22nd. The deadline for submissions is the previous Tuesday (10/22 and 11/19). Question? Ask Mark in the Office!

The Charleston Gift Wrap Fundraiser has begun!

Please check your student's backpacks for order forms and information! Proceeds go to support Visual Arts Education at Llewellyn Elementary. Checks should be made out to Llewellyn. Thank you for your support! Order forms and funds are due back on October 10th!
