A	The top portion includes student school, and Diploma information. If the information listed is inaccurate, please contact the school.
B	This section contains the student's course history. The courses listed are in the order taken and will contain the following information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Name of School where the course was taken</li> <li>• Month and Year the course was completed</li> <li>• Student Grade Level when the course was taken</li> <li>• Graduation Requirement the course will count towards</li> <li>• Any special notations about the course</li> <li>• Title of the course</li> <li>• Mark received for the course</li> <li>• Credit received for the course</li> </ul>
	Listed below are the most common types of Courses and Credits listed on a transcript. If others show on your transcript, contact the school. Prior to 9th grade credits – These will show as earned as an 8th grader at the Middle School. They will be counted the same as a Course taken at the High School. Courses completed at a PPS High School – These courses are populated from the student schedule once completed. Credits earned from sources other than the High School – Examples: Credit by Exam, Independent Studies, SLIP, STAMP Evening Scholars, Summer Scholars, Virtual Scholars Transfer Credits from schools outside of PPS Transfer credits from schools in other countries Modified Courses – These courses are marked with an *asterisk. These courses have been modified to the point they no longer meet the required standards for a Standard diploma. These courses will count as an Elective unless the student is assigned to a Modified Diploma. Repeated Courses – Courses can be repeated for a higher mark or for credit when students fail a course. The original course will be marked with a small "R" to show it has been taken again. The marked course will not be counted in the GPA calculation. Work in Progress (WIP) – These courses are populated from the student schedule prior to the completion of the Grading period. This does include courses scheduled at other PPS schools.
C	This section only shows the attendance history for PPS schools. It will include Elementary and Middle Schools if applicable. Days Membership column represents the number of days present for the year listed at the PPS school. The Days Absences column represents the number of days absent for that year. This number includes both Excused and Unexcused absences.

D	Graduation Requirements are based on the Diploma Type. The example is based on a Standard Diploma type.
	Graduation Requirements – Credit Summary The 5 columns are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Subject Area - Diploma Category for courses required</li> <li>• Req'd – Required number of credits</li> <li>• Comp – Completed number of credits</li> <li>• WIP – Work in Progress credits (if selected to show)</li> <li>• Needed – Remaining Credits Needed (Needed) to graduate</li> </ul> Graduation Requirements – Test History Essential Skills requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Name of requirement (Reading, Writing, and Math)</li> <li>• Date completed or last attempted</li> <li>• If Passed, Not Passed or Not Taken</li> <li>• How it was Passed – WS = Work Sample, OSA = OAKS Test, Nat = National Test (SAT, ACT, etc)</li> </ul> Personalized Learning requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Name of the requirement My Plan Essay, Resume, CRLE1 and CRLE2</li> <li>• Date each PLR was completed</li> <li>• If Passed, Not Passed or Not Taken</li> </ul>
E	This section lists the National Tests Taken by the student and the scores earned. The only tests currently included are the ACT, SAT, and SBAC. When tests are taken multiple times, tests will show in the order taken.
F	This section includes the student's Grade Point Average (GPA), Class Rank information, the Mark Legend for some of the most common marks used at PPS schools, and the Signature Line.
	Cumulative GPA - Weighted and Unweighted <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• This calculation represents the average value of all the marks (A, B, C, D, F) earned for the high school courses.</li> <li>• It is calculated by adding all the mark values (listed in the Grid) for each mark given and dividing this total by the number of courses taken.</li> </ul> Student's Class Rank <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• This is based on the calculated GPA.</li> <li>• Students are ranked from highest GPA (1 in their class) to the lowest GPA in their Grade Level.</li> </ul> Example: Student with all A's would have a 4.0 GPA. Signature line <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• When an Official Transcript is requested, a School Staff Member signature is required.</li> </ul> Date <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Date listed shows when the transcript was generated.</li> </ul>
G	Course Legend <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Two types of courses are used for weighted GPA's. AP – Advanced Placement IB – International Baccalaureate</li> <li>• PPS used specific marks for grading. Listed in the legend are the ones most used that are not the traditional A, B, C, D, and F.
