

Announcing Mt. Tabor Middle School's New Interim Principal Anh Nguyen-Johnson

July 2016

Dear Mt. Tabor Community,

It is with great pleasure that I announce Anh Nguyen-Johnson as the new Interim Principal for the 2016-17 school year at Mt. Tabor Middle School. She is currently the Assistant Principal at Mt. Tabor and succeeds Robi Osborn who is taking on another assignment with Portland Public Schools.

Anh earned bachelor's degrees from Syracuse University in Inclusive Elementary and Special Education and Sociology, and her master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction from Portland State University. She completed her administrative license at Lewis and Clark College.

A seasoned manager with more than twenty years of educational and leadership expertise, Anh joined Portland Public Schools in 2004 as a technology teacher at Forest Park Elementary School. She also served as a senior program manager in the Office of Information Technology supporting teachers and schools in the district implementation of a new Student Information System. Anh has been the Assistant Principal at Mt. Tabor since 2014 and speaks conversational Vietnamese.

Mindful of the school motto, Strong community, Strong results; Anh looks forward to continuing to work with students, parents and staff in the neighborhood program and the Japanese and Spanish immersion programs, supporting established initiatives for which Mt. Tabor is recognized.

Anh grew up in the Philadelphia area, but now calls Portland home. She enjoys traveling, spending time with family, baking, and coaching girl's lacrosse.

Please join me in congratulating Mt. Tabor Middle School Interim Principal Anh Nguyen-Johnson and wishing Robi Osborn well in her new assignment.

Carole Smith
Superintendent
